Subparagraph shall have his benefit, inclusive of military service credit and allowable unused annual and sick leave, actuarially reduced. Any member retiring under this Subparagraph who is in state service at the time of his retirement shall have his benefit actuarially reduced from the earliest age that he would normally become eligible for a regular retirement benefit under Subparagraph (a), (b), or (c) of this Paragraph if he had continued in service to that age. Any member retiring under this Subparagraph who is out of state service at the time of his retirement shall have his benefit actuarially reduced from the earliest age that he would normally become eligible for a regular retirement benefit under Subparagraph (a), (b), or (c) of this Paragraph based upon his years of service as of the date of retirement. Any employee who elects to retire under the provisions of this Subparagraph shall not be eligible to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan provided by R.S. 11:446(A)(5).

- (2)(a) Any member hired on or after July 1, 2006, shall be eligible for retirement if he has:
 - (i) Twenty-seven years or more of service, at any age.
 - (ii) Five years or more of service, at age sixty or thereafter.
- (ii) (iii) Twenty years of service credit at any age, exclusive of military service and unused annual and sick leave; however, any person retiring under this Item shall have his benefit, inclusive of military service credit and allowable unused annual and sick leave, actuarially reduced from the earliest age that he would normally become eligible for a regular retirement benefit under Item (i) of this Subparagraph if he had continued in service to that age. Any employee who elects to retire under the provisions of this Item shall not be eligible to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan provided by R.S. 11:447 or the Initial Benefit Option provided by R.S. 11:446.
- (b) Except for members of the Hazardous Duty Services Plan, as defined in R.S. 11:612, any member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in one of the state systems occurred on or after January 1, 2011, and on or before June 30, 2015, including any judge, court officer, governor, lieutenant governor, clerk or sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, secretary or sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, or state treasurer, shall be eligible for retirement if he has:

- (i) Twenty-seven years or more of service, at any age.
- (ii) Five years or more of service, at age sixty or thereafter.

(ii) (iii) Twenty years of service credit at any age, exclusive of military service and unused annual and sick leave, but any person retiring under this Item shall have his benefit, inclusive of military service credit and allowable unused annual and sick leave, actuarially reduced from the earliest age that he would normally become eligible for a regular retirement benefit under Item (i) of this Subparagraph if he had continued in service to that age. Any employee who elects to retire under the provisions of this Item shall not be eligible to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan provided by R.S. 11:447 or the Initial Benefit Option provided by R.S. 11:446.

- (c) Except for members of the Hazardous Duty Services Plan, as defined in R.S. 11:612, any member whose first employment making him eligible for membership in one of the state systems occurred on or after July 1, 2015, including any judge, court officer, governor, lieutenant governor, clerk or sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, secretary or sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, or state treasurer, shall be eligible for retirement if he has:
 - (i) Twenty-seven years or more of service, at any age.
 - (ii) Five years or more of service, at age sixty-two or thereafter.
- (ii) (iii) Twenty years of service credit at any age, exclusive of military service and unused annual and sick leave, but any person retiring under this Item shall have his benefit, inclusive of military service credit and allowable unused annual and sick leave, actuarially reduced from the earliest age that he would normally become eligible for a regular retirement benefit under Item (i) of this Subparagraph if he had continued in service to that age. Abstract: Provides relative to eligibility for retirement in the La. State Employees' Retirement System (LASERS).

Present law provides that retirement eligibility in LASERS varies depending on the date of the member's first employment making him eligible for membership in one of the state retirement systems. Specifically provides as follows regarding eligibility for retirement without an actuarial reduction:

- (1) For a member whose first employment was on or before June 30, 2006:
 - (a) 30 years or more of service, at any age.
 - (b) 25 years or more of service, at age 55 or thereafter.
 - (c) 10 years or more of service, at age 60 or thereafter.
- (2) For a member whose first employment was on or after July 1, 2006, and for any judge, court officer, governor, lieutenant governor, clerk or sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, secretary or sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, or state treasurer whose first employment occurred between Dec. 31, 2010, and July 1, 2015: five years or more of service, at age 60 or thereafter.
- (3) For a member whose first employment was on or after July 1, 2015: five years or more of service, at age 62 or thereafter.

Proposed law provides that any such member, regardless of his date of first employment or age, is eligible to retire if he has 27 years of service.
