Senate Bill 306

Committee: County and Municipal Government

Sponsor: Senator Chris Elliott

Analyst: Riley Aaron

Date: 05/15/2023

Senate Bill 306 as introduced would require the countywide election of a chair of the county commission in any county in which the county commission is currently composed of four county commissioners. This could increase the obligations of any county commissioners currently composed of only four commissioners by a minimum of $140,000 annually in order to compensate the chair of the county commission pursuant to the provisions of this bill.
