4 SYNOPSIS:

5 There is no provision under state law that 6 prohibits a state agency or occupational licensing 7 board from entering into agreements preventing an individual from disclosing information garnered by that 8 9 individual relating to misfeasance or malfeasance committed by an employee, officer, or contractor of 10 11 that state agency or occupational licensing board which was committed while the employee, officer, or 12 13 contractor was employed or serving that agency or 14 board.

15 This bill would prohibit state agencies and occupational licensing boards from entering into 16 agreements that restrict an individual from publicly 17 18 disclosing information relating to misfeasance, malfeasance, or potential criminal activity committed 19 20 by an employee, officer, or contractor of that agency 21 or board while employed by, or serving, that agency or 22 board.

A BILL

TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

HB11 INTRODUCED

Relating to boards and agencies; to prohibit state agencies and occupational licensing boards from prohibiting or restricting an individual from publicly disclosing certain information relating to an employee's or contractor's misfeasance, malfeasance, or potential criminal activity. BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

35 Section 1. (a) As used in this section, "state agency" 36 means any department, agency, board, commission, bureau, or 37 public institution of higher education, and "occupational 38 licensing board" means any board or commission authorized by 39 state law to license or certify individuals to practice an 40 occupation or profession in the state.

41 (b) No state agency or occupational licensing board may 42 enter into any agreement that prevents or restricts an 43 individual from publicly disclosing any information or knowledge gained by that individual which relates to any 44 45 misfeasance, malfeasance, or potential criminal activity 46 committed by an employee, officer, or contractor, or former employee, officer, or contractor of that state agency or 47 48 occupational licensing board during the employee's, officer's, 49 or contractor's term of employment or service.

50 Section 2. This act shall become effective on October 51 1, 2024.
