8 SYNOPSIS: Under Amendment 57 to the Constitution of 9 Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Sections 48.01
10 and 49 of the Official ReCompilation of the 11 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended,
12 members of the Legislature are provided certain 13 compensation and an expense reimbursement
14 authorized to be fixed by the Legislature. Several 15 acts of the Legislature provide reimbursement for 16 presiding officers and members of the Legislature.

17 This bill would propose a constitutional
18 amendment to amend Amendment 57, to provide that 19 the presiding officers and members of the 20 Legislature would receive compensation for 21 legislative service that is the same as the average 22 gross family income in Alabama and reimbursement of 23 expenses to the same extent as paid to state
24 employees; and if proration is declared, the salary 25 or compensation received by members of the 26 Legislature would be reduced by the same percentage 27 during the last quarter of the fiscal year in which

1 proration is declared; and would repeal existing 2 law on the subject.

7

8 Proposing an amendment to Amendment 57, now
9 appearing as Sections 48.01 and 49 of the Official 10 Recompilation of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as 11 amended, providing that the presiding officers and members of 12 the Legislature shall receive annual compensation based on the 13 average gross family income of this state for the previous 14 year and shall receive reimbursement for expenses for each day
15 attending a session of the Legislature, a meeting of a
16 committee or subcommittee of the Legislature, or traveling on 17 legislative business in the same in-state and out-of-state
18 amounts paid to state employees; and provide that if proration 19 is declared, the salary or compensation received by members of 20 the Legislature would be reduced by the same percentage during 21 the last quarter of the fiscal year in which proration is 22 declared; and to repeal conflicting laws regarding 23 compensation and expense reimbursement.

24 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA:

25 Section 1. The following amendment to the 26 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, as amended, is proposed and 27 shall become valid as a part thereof when approved by a

1 majority of the qualified electors voting thereon and in 2 accordance with Sections 284, 285, and 287 of the Constitution
3 of Alabama of 1901, as amended:

4 PROPOSED AMENDMENT

5 "Amendment 57.

6 "(a) All sessions of the legislature shall be held 7 at the capitol in the senate chamber and in the hall of the 8 house of representatives, unless at any time it should from 9 any cause become impossible or dangerous for the legislature 10 to meet or remain at the capitol, or for the senate to meet or 11 remain in the senate chamber, or for the representatives to 12 meet or remain in the hall of the house of representatives, in 13 which case the governor may convene the legislature, or remove 14 it after it has convened, to some other place, or may 15 designate some other place for the sitting of the respective 16 houses, or either of them, as necessity may require. The 17 legislature shall convene on the second Tuesday in January 18 next succeeding their election and shall remain in session for 19 not longer than ten consecutive calendar days. No business can 20 be transacted at such sessions except the organization of the 21 legislature, the election of officers, the appointment of 22 standing committees of the senate and the house of 23 representatives for the ensuing four years, which election and 24 appointment may, however, also be made at such other times as 25 may be necessary, the opening and publication of the returns 26 and the ascertainment and declaration of the results of the 27 election for governor, lieutenant-governor, attorney-general,

1 state auditor, secretary of state, state treasurer,
2 superintendent of education, and commissioner of agriculture
3 and industries, the election of such officers in the event of 4 a tie vote, the determination of contested elections for such 5 offices, the judging of the election returns and qualification 6 of the members of the legislature, and the inauguration of the 7 governor and the other elected state officers whose terms of 8 office are concurrent with that of the governor. At the 9 beginning of each such organization session, and at such other 10 times as may be necessary, the senate shall elect one of its 11 members president pro tempore thereof, to preside over its 12 deliberations in the absence of the lieutenant-governor, and 13 the house of representatives shall elect one of its members as 14 speaker, to preside over its deliberations. The president of 15 the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives 16 shall each hold his respective office until his successor has 17 been elected and qualified. The legislature shall convene in 18 regular sessions on the first Tuesday in May of 1947 and on 19 the first Tuesday in May in each second year thereafter, until 20 the date of meeting shall have been changed by act of the 21 legislature and approved by the governor. The legislature 22 shall not remain in session longer than thirty-six days at any 23 such regular session. Special sessions of the legislature 24 convened in the manner provided by this Constitution also 25 shall be limited to thirty-six days. ~~The pay of members of the~~ 26 ~~legislature shall be ten dollars per day. Each member of the~~ 27 ~~legislature shall be paid ten cents per mile in going from his~~

1 ~~residence to, and in returning to his residence from, the seat~~
2 ~~of government, to be computed by the nearest usual route~~ 3 ~~traveled; and not more than one such travel allowance shall be~~ 4 ~~paid for each session of the legislature. In addition to his~~ 5 ~~travel allowance, each member of the legislature also shall be~~ 6 ~~allowed expenses, other than actual expenses of traveling, not~~ 7 ~~exceeding an amount to be fixed by the legislature, incurred~~
8 ~~in the performance of his duties; but such expense allowance~~
9 ~~shall not be less than the smallest allowance to any other~~
10 ~~person traveling within the state in the service of the state~~ 11 ~~of Alabama, or any of its agencies, for expenses other than~~ 12 ~~actual expenses of traveling. The provisions of this~~ 13 ~~Constitution in conflict herewith are hereby modified to~~ 14 ~~conform to the provisions of this amendment. The provisions of~~ 15 ~~this amendment shall become effective at the beginning of the~~ 16 ~~term of the members of the legislature elected at the general~~
17 ~~election in 1946.~~

18 "(b) (1) The presiding officers and members of the 19 Legislature shall be compensated in the same annual amount as 20 the average gross family income in Alabama for the preceding 21 calender year as determined by the Department of Finance, 22 beginning with the median family income received in 2012.
23 Adjustments shall be made to the compensation payable in 24 January 2013 and during the last January of each quadrennium
25 thereafter. If proration is declared, the salary or 26 compensation received by members of the Legislature shall be

1 reduced by the same percentage during the last quarter of the 2 fiscal year in which proration is declared.

3 "(2) In addition to the compensation provided in 4 subdivision (1), the presiding officers and members of the 5 Legislature shall receive reimbursement for expenses for each 6 day of attending a session or committee meeting of the 7 Legislature or traveling on legislative business at the same 8 rates as are reimbursed to state employees for in-state and 9 out-of-state travel on official state business, upon the 10 submission of vouchers to the Lieutenant Governor and Speaker
11 of the House of Representatives.

12 "(3) The compensation and reimbursement provided in 13 subdivisions (1) and (2) shall constitute the total amounts 14 payable to the presiding officers and members of the 15 Legislature, beginning October 1, 2011. All laws or parts of 16 laws in conflict with this subsection are repealed, including,
17 but not limited to: Act 87-209, Act 91-108, Act 2007-75, Act 18 1196 of the 1971 Regular Session, Act 91-95, Act 90-490, and 19 Section 29-1-8, Code of Alabama 1975."

20 Section 2. An election upon the proposed amendment 21 shall be held in accordance with Sections 284 and 285 of the 22 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Sections 284
23 and 285 of the Official Recompilation of the Constitution of 24 Alabama of 1901, as amended, and the election laws of this 25 state.

26 Section 3. The appropriate election official shall 27 assign a ballot number for the proposed constitutional

1 amendment on the election ballot and shall set forth the 2 following description of the substance or subject matter of 3 the proposed constitutional amendment:

4 "Proposing an amendment to Amendment 57 of the 5 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, to provide for the 6 compensation to be paid to the presiding officers and members
7 of the Legislature based on the Alabama average gross family 8 income, and to provide for reimbursement for expenses for 9 attending a session of the Legislature, a meeting of a
10 committee or subcommittee of the Legislature, or traveling on 11 legislative business in the same amounts paid to state 12 employees for in-state and out-of-state travel upon the 13 submission of vouchers; and to repeal existing conflicting 14 laws.

15 "Proposed by Act _____."

16 This description shall be followed by the following 17 language:

18 "Yes () No ()."
