8 SYNOPSIS: Under existing law, cases of nonenrollment
9 and nonattendance of students in the public K-12
10 schools are investigated by attendance officers at 11 the request of the local superintendent of 12 education.

13 This bill would delete the requirement of 14 providing notice in any case where nonenrollment or 15 nonattendance has been intentional and without 16 valid reason.

17 This bill would also require the 18 distribution and verification of receipt of the 19 school attendance policy and applicable sections of 20 the Alabama Compulsory School Attendance Law by 21 each parent, guardian, or other person having 22 control of a child enrolled in each school system.
