8 SYNOPSIS: Under the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, a 9 vacancy in either the Alabama House of 10 Representatives or Senate is filled by a special
11 election called by the Governor.

12 This bill would propose an amendment to the 13 Constitution to provide a vacancy in either the 14 House of Representatives or the Senate that occurs
15 with less than two years remaining in the term 16 would be filled by a person qualified to hold the 17 office and appointed by the Governor. The amendment 18 also would provide that a person appointed to the 19 vacancy is not eligible to run for the office in 20 the election for the next full term for the office.

11 accordance with Sections 284, 285, and 287 of the Constitution
12 of Alabama of 1901, as amended:

13 PROPOSED AMENDMENT

14 Part 1. Section 46 of the Constitution of Alabama of 15 1901, and Amendment 97 to the Constitution of Alabama of 1901,
16 both now appearing as Section 46 of the Official Recompilation
17 of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, are repealed.

18 Part 2. Section 46 is added to the Constitution of 19 Alabama of 1901, to read as follows:

20 Section 46.

21 (a) Senators and representatives shall be elected by 22 the qualified electors on the first Tuesday after the first 23 Monday in November unless the Legislature shall change the 24 time of holding elections and in every fourth year thereafter.
25 The terms of office of the senators and representatives shall 26 commence on the day after the general election at which they 27 are elected, and expire on the day after the general election

1 held in the fourth year after their election, except as 2 otherwise provided in this Constitution. At the general
3 election in the year nineteen hundred and two all the 4 representatives, together with the senators for the even 5 numbered districts and for the thirty-fifth district, shall be 6 elected. The terms of those senators who represent the odd 7 numbered districts under the law in force prior to the 8 ratification of this Constitution, are hereby extended until 9 the day after the general election in the year nineteen
10 hundred and six; and until the expiration of his or her term
11 as hereinbefore extended, each such senator shall represent 12 the district established by this Constitution, bearing the 13 number corresponding with that for which he or she was 14 elected. In the year nineteen hundred and six, and in every 15 fourth year thereafter, all the senators and representatives
16 shall be elected.

18 Legislature, the Governor shall issue a writ of election to 19 fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. However, if 20 the Secretary of State determines that a legally qualified 21 candidate for election to the vacancy is unopposed when the 22 last date for filing certificates of nomination has passed, 23 the election shall not be held. The Secretary of State shall 24 issue a certificate of election to the candidate, the same as 25 if an election had been held, and the certificate shall be 26 accepted by the house in which the vacancy occurred as 27 evidence of the unopposed candidate's right to fill the

1 position created by the vacancy. In the event an election is 2 held, all the costs and expenses incurred thereby shall be
3 paid out of any funds in the State Treasury not otherwise 4 appropriated.

6 Legislature with less than two years remaining in the term,
7 the Governor shall appoint a person qualified to hold the 8 office for the remainder of the term. A person so appointed 9 may not run for election to the office at the election for the 10 next full term of office for the office.

12 shall be held in accordance with Sections 284 and 285 of the 13 Constitution of Alabama of 1901, now appearing as Sections 284
14 and 285 of the Official Recompilation of the Constitution of 15 Alabama of 1901, as amended, and the election laws of this
