

ARIZONA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Fifty-fifth Legislature
First Regular Session

HB 2025: delinquent property tax; interest; waiver

Sponsor: Representative Kavanagh, LD 23

Committee on Ways & Means

Overview

Allows a county treasurer to waive interest and penalties for delinquent taxes. Allows this waiver only once per property.

History

Mandates that all delinquent taxes bear interest at the rate of 16% per year until paid. Interest shall not be collected if:

- 1) Delinquency is the result of an error by the county assessor or treasurer; or
- 2) If the full-year tax is paid on or before December 31 of the tax year. (A.R.S. § 42-18053)

Provisions

1. Allows the county treasurer to waive interest and penalties that accumulate during a one-year period after a mortgage or deed of trust has been satisfied or otherwise released on a property. (Sec. 1)
2. Limits a taxpayer to one waiver under this subsection per property. (Sec. 1)
3. Contains technical changes. (Sec.1)
