Sponsor: Senator Bolick, LD 2

Caucus & COW

Overview

Applies vehicle load restrictions to a street or roadway.

History

Statute outlines that a person must not drive or move a vehicle on a highway unless the vehicle is constructed or loaded in a manner to prevent any of its load from dropping, sifting, leaking or otherwise escaping from the vehicle, except the following are permitted:

- 1) sufficient sand may be dropped to secure traction;
- 2) water or another substance may be sprinkled on a roadway in cleaning or maintaining the roadway; and
- 3) minor pieces of agricultural materials such as leaves and stems from agricultural loads.

A person must not operate a vehicle on a highway with a load unless the load and any covering on the load are securely fastened in a manner to prevent the covering or load from becoming loose, detached or in any manner a hazard to other users of the highway.

If a person is found in violation of the outlined vehicle load restrictions but does not cause any damage or injury, for the person's first violation in a 60-month period the person is subject to a civil penalty of no more than $250. For a second or subsequent violation in a 60-month period, the person is subject to a civil penalty of no more than $350. If the violation results in an accident-causing serious physical injury to another person, the person is subject to a civil penalty of no more than $500. If the violation results in an accident causing the death of another person, the person is subject to a civil penalty of no more than $1,000 (A.R.S. § 28-1098).
