SB 1718: private activity bonding

Sponsor: Senator Kaiser, LD 2

House Engrossed

Overview

Makes changes to requirements and allocation percentages of the state ceiling for private activity bonds.

History

The Internal Revenue Code (IRC) permits certain bonds to be issued as a tax-exempt bond if the bond meets the federal requirements as a qualified private activity bond. States are limited to a maximum amount of qualified private activity bonds that can be issued on an annual basis which is based on the state's population. The amount allocated to a state is called the state ceiling. The amount of the state ceiling is then allocated among the issuing authorities within a state, which is referred to as the issuing authority's volume cap.

The Arizona Finance Authority (AFA) is charged with allocating the state ceiling for private activity bonds. The AFA must issue state ceiling confirmations on a first-come first-served basis within enumerated project categories in accordance with set allocation percentages. The allocation percentages of the state ceiling are set at:

- 1) 30% to projects that are designated at the sole discretion of the AFA Director;
- 2) 35% to qualified mortgage revenue bonds and qualified mortgage credit certificate programs, excluding such bonds and programs for home improvement and rehabilitation;
- 3) 15% to qualified residential rental projects as described in the IRC;
- 4) 5% to qualified student loan projects;
- 5) 5% to manufacturing projects; and
- 6) 10% to all other financeable projects that are not described or provided for in the previous allocations (A.R.S. § 35-902).

According to the AFA, the 2023 Volume Cap is $883,103,640, as divided into the allocation categories:

- 1) 30% - $264,931,092 - Director's Discretion;
- 2) 35% - $309,086,274 - Mortgage Revenue Bonds and Mortgage Credit Certificates;
- 3) 15% - $132,465,546 - Residential Rental;
- 4) 5% - $ 44,155,182 - Student Loan Projects;
- 5) 5% - $ 44,155,182 - Manufacturing Projects; and
- 6) 10% - $ 88,310,364 - Other.
