circulation of the petition.

Section 3 of the bill requires each person who submits written comments to the staff of legislative council for the general assembly in connection with drafting the arguments for and against the initiated or referred measures contained in the ballot information booklet (blue book) to provide certain identifying information. The arguments for and against each measure in the analysis section of the blue book shall be preceded by a phrase referencing the secretary of state's election center web site address containing information on those issue committees that support or oppose the measures at the upcoming election.

Section 4 of the bill clarifies "major purpose" for purposes of the campaign and political finance provisions of the state constitution.

Section 5 of the bill makes a conforming amendment.

Section 6 of the bill requires an issue committee that makes an expenditure in excess of $1,000 on a communication that is broadcast, printed, mailed, or delivered to disclose, in the communication produced by the expenditure, the name of the issue committee making the expenditure. The bill specifies how the disclaimer must appear in the communication.

Section 7 of the bill specifies that upon a determination by the office of administrative courts that an issue committee knowingly or intentionally failed to file a report required pursuant to the state's campaign finance laws, the administrative law judge shall direct the issue committee to file any such report within 10 days and may, in addition to any other penalty, impose a penalty not to exceed $20 for each contribution received and expenditure made by the issue committee that was not timely reported.

1 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Colorado:

2 SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly
3 hereby finds and declares that:

4 (a) Because statewide citizen-initiated ballot issues have become 5 as prevalent on recent election ballots as the candidates for office and the 6 consequences of the passage of those ballot issues oftentimes are as 7 significant as the political positions of the candidates who are elected, the 8 financial disclosure of the issue committees supporting or opposing the 9 ballot issues under the campaign finance law should be the same as that 10 for candidates;

1 (b) During the 2008 general election campaign, the estimated total
2 amount expended by issue committees in support of and in opposition to 3 statewide citizen-initiated ballot issues exceeded seventy million dollars;

4 (c) A substantial portion of the amount expended by issue
5 committees during the election campaign was for television, radio, and 6 print communications advocating the passage or defeat of a statewide
7 ballot issue on the election ballot;

8 (d) The issue committees that expended substantial sums of 9 money during the campaign to broadcast, print, mail, and deliver
10 communications urging voters to support or oppose the statewide ballot
11 issues on the election ballot were under no requirement of Colorado law 12 to disclose to the voters the names of the issue committees paying for the 13 communications;

14 (e) The absence of any disclosure or disclaimer requirement in 15 connection with communications supporting or opposing statewide ballot
16 issues leads to a perception of purposefully anonymous interests
17 attempting to influence the outcome of the election on measures
18 amending the state constitution or the Colorado Revised Statutes through 19 the expenditure of large sums of money;

20 (f) The lack of a mandatory disclosure or disclaimer by issue
21 committees expending moneys on these communications deprived the 22 voters of information on the sources of election-related spending and calls 23 into doubt the integrity of the statewide ballot issue election process;

24 (g) There is no evidence that requiring a disclosure or disclaimer
25 in an issue committee communication as provided in section 1-45-108.3,
26 Colorado Revised Statutes, as contained in section 6 of House Bill
27 10-1370, enacted in 2010, will subject issue committees to threats,

1 harassment, or reprisals from either government officials or other persons.

2 SECTION 2. 1-40-113 (1), Colorado Revised Statutes, is 3 amended to read:

4 1-40-113. Form - representatives of signers. (1) (a) Each 5 section of a petition shall be printed on a form as prescribed by the 6 secretary of state. No petition shall be printed, published, or otherwise 7 circulated unless the form and the first printer's proof of the petition have 8 been approved by the secretary of state. Each petition section shall 9 designate by name and mailing address two persons who shall represent 10 the signers thereof in all matters affecting the same. The secretary of 11 state shall assure that the petition contains only the matters required by 12 this article and contains no extraneous material. All sections of any 13 petition shall be prenumbered serially, and the circulation of any petition 14 section described by this article other than personally by a circulator is 15 prohibited. Any petition section circulated in whole or in part by anyone 16 other than the person who signs the affidavit attached to the petition 17 section shall be invalid. Any petition section that fails to conform to the 18 requirements of this article or is circulated in a manner other than that 19 permitted in this article shall be invalid.

20 (b) THE SECRETARY OF STATE SHALL NOTIFY THE PROPONENTS AT 21 THE TIME A PETITION IS APPROVED PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH (a) OF THIS 22 SUBSECTION (1) THAT THE PROPONENTS MUST REGISTER AN ISSUE

4 the ballot information booklet is finalized, the director of research of the 5 legislative council of the general assembly shall conduct a public meeting 6 at which the director and other members of the legislative staff have the 7 opportunity to ask questions that arise in response to the written
8 comments. The director may modify the draft of the booklet in response 9 to comments made at the hearing. The legislative council may modify the 10 draft of the booklet upon the two-thirds affirmative vote of the members
