SENATE
Final Reading
April 15, 2024

1 in California and Oregon in the 1970s; during this time, he and his 2 1976-77 Industrial Mechanics students took on an impressive class
3 project: Building a house on a job site; and

4 WHEREAS, In 1977, Senator King returned to Colorado and 5 started a new phase in his life as owner of Waterbed Palace, a business 6 that thrived under his leadership, eventually expanding to 18 stores in six 7 states; and

8 WHEREAS, In 1991, Senator King was elected to the Cheyenne 9 Mountain school board, and after the end of his term, in 1995, he helped 10 found Cheyenne Mountain Charter Academy, serving as its president 11 from 1995 until 1998; and

12 WHEREAS, Senator King began his legislative career in the 13 Colorado House of Representatives in 1998. He served four terms and 14 was elected Assistant Majority Leader in 2001 and Majority Leader in 15 2003. As a testament to his leadership, he was named Legislator of the 16 Year in 2002 by the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce and in 17 2003 by the Economic Development Council of Colorado; and

18 WHEREAS, Carrying his passion for education to the statehouse,
19 then-Representative King soon began to build on his predecessors' work 20 on the charter school system. In his very first session as a legislator, he 21 sponsored two important bills to improve charter school operations. In 22 sessions that followed, he also focused on the funding systems for 23 education, sponsoring the College Opportunity Fund bill and the annual 24 school finance bill; and

25 WHEREAS, After two years away from the General Assembly, he 26 ran for the Colorado State Senate and was elected to represent District 12 27 in 2008. Senator King would go on to serve four years in that role; and

28 WHEREAS, Senator King was known for his attention to detail as 29 a legislator and earned the title of "Amendment King" during his time at 30 the State Capitol. "No one read bills more thoroughly than King", said 31 former Senator Evie Hudak, "with plenty of amendments to follow"; and

32 WHEREAS, In 2012, upon King's retirement from the Senate, 33 then-Senator Mike Johnson said, "[Senator King] has done as much for 34 education policy in ... the last 14 years as anyone in the state, both on the 35 ground, running a school, and working in education policy"; and

1           WHEREAS, Current legislators continue to admire Senator King
2 and his legacy, such as Representative Don Wilson, who called Senator 3 King "a humble and hard-working man that so many of us looked up to.
4 Keith had an amazingly positive impact on Colorado that will not soon be 5 forgotten"; and

6           WHEREAS, When this dedicated policymaker left the statehouse, 7 he continued his public service on the Colorado Springs City Council and 8 on numerous boards and planning councils for charter schools throughout 9 the state; and

10           WHEREAS, Keith's goal was to honor his Lord and Savior, Jesus 11 Christ, by his favorite scripture, Psalms 71:14-18: "As for me, I will 12 always have hope; I will praise you more and more. My mouth will tell 13 of your righteous deeds, of your saving acts all day long--though I know 14 not how to relate them all. I will come and proclaim your mighty acts, 15 Sovereign Lord; I will proclaim your righteous deeds, yours alone. Since 16 my youth, God, you have taught me, and to this day I declare your 17 marvelous deeds. Even when I am old and gray, do not forsake me, my 18 God, till I declare your power to the next generation, your mighty acts to 19 all who are to come"; now, therefore,

20           Be It Resolved by the Senate of the Seventy-fourth General
21 Assembly of the State of Colorado, the House of Representatives
22 concurring herein:

23           That we, the Colorado General Assembly, honor Senator Keith
24 King for his many years of service to our state and the impact his work 25 will have for generations to come.

26           Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this Joint Memorial be sent 27 to Sandi King, Jeremy King, and Brandon King.
