A CEREMONIAL RESOLUTION

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To recognize and honor the career and achievements of Andy Litsky for his longtime service to the District as an Advisory Neighborhood Commissioner for the Southwest waterfront community.

WHEREAS, Andy Litsky is a Bronx, New York City native who matriculated through the city’s public school and university systems;

WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky began his career with the New York Youth Services Administration, working on intervention efforts with street gangs, and then worked for several years as a teacher in both New York City public schools and in Spain;

WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky transitioned from social services and education into the private sector of cable television, having been chosen to lead national political field operations for the National Cable Television Association (“NCTA”);

WHEREAS, he would go on to become the NCTA’s Director of Public Affairs, helping to navigate the industry during a period of tremendous nationwide growth, and would spend the next decade focused on communications consulting;

WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky is a lifelong Democrat and worked tirelessly to elect Jimmy Carter to the presidency, as well as working on numerous other senate, congressional, and presidential campaigns, serving as treasurer of the 1996 D.C. Coordinated Democratic Campaign, and serving

34 as a delegate for the District of Columbia at numerous party national conventions, including for 35 William J. Clinton in 1996 and John Kerry in 2004;

36 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky was twice elected as Chair of the Ward Two Democrats and served
37 four for years on the D.C. Democratic State Committee;

38 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky campaigned for D.C. statehood and limiting congressional 39 interference in District affairs, namely working against the death penalty being instituted in D.C.;

40 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky would be inspired by his advocacy for people living with 41 HIV/AIDS in the 1980s;

42 WHEREAS, he served as Associate Executive Director of Public Affairs for the Whitman-
43 Walker Clinic, where he stayed for nearly ten years, deciding he wanted to create lasting change
44 and better devote his efforts to those living with HIV/AIDS after experiencing so many of his 45 friends dying from the disease;

46 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky championed marriage equality, serving as the founding secretary
47 of the Foundation for All D.C. Families, the first marriage equality organization focusing on the 48 District;

49 WHEREAS, in 1998, Mr. Litsky was first elected as an Advisory Neighborhood
50 Commissioner for his beloved Southwest Waterfront, an office he would hold for the next 24 years;

51 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky represented Advisory Neighborhood Commission 6D, which 52 included Southwest, Navy Yard, and Buzzard Point;

53 WHEREAS, during his long tenure, ANC 6D would become home to the new federal 54 Department of Transportation and five District agencies: the Department of Motor Vehicles, the 55 District Department of Transportation, the newly built Office of Planning, the Department of 56 Consumer & Regulatory Affairs, and the Office of the Chief Financial Officer;

57 WHEREAS, the Arena Stage complex became the Meade Center for American Theater,
58 the new 41,000 seat ballpark was built to house the Washington Nationals, and Audi Field was 59 built to accommodate 25,000 fans of D.C. United;

60 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky represented the Wharf in his Single Member District, and he 61 worked closely with the developers to ensure residents’ interests were included in every facet of 62 planning and construction;

63 WHEREAS, The Yards transformed the Capital Riverfront, three museums were
64 constructed and opened their doors – The Spy Museum, the Bible Museum, and the Rubell
65 Museum, a project with which Mr. Litsky was closely associated for 15 years until its opening in 66 October 2022, and two Business Improvement Districts – Capitol Riverfront BID and Southwest
67 BID – would call ANC 6D home;

68 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky led several advocacy campaigns during his career;

69 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky has long served the Southwest community outside of elected
70 office, serving on the governing boards of Arena Stage Angels and Southwest House – the oldest 71 local social service organization in the United States serving the African American community,
72 and he has been a 6-term member of the Executive Council for AARP DC, where he used his
73 position to lobby AARP National to represent better the needs of LGBT seniors in all programming
74 and marketing;

75 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky was named a Capital Pride Hero in 2005 for his work on behalf of 76 HIV/AIDS education, helping to transform the lives of so many and shining a light on the needs
77 of the LGBTQ community;

78 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky announced in 2022 that he would not seek another term as an Advisory
79 Neighborhood Commissioner, ending a long and storied tenure of elected service to the Southwest waterfront

80 community; and

81 WHEREAS, Mr. Litsky leaves big shoes to be filled but will remain active in community service.

82 RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, that this
83 resolution may be cited as the “Andy Litsky Recognition Resolution of 2022”.

84 Sec. 2. The Council of the District of Columbia recognizes and honors the career and 85 achievements of Andy Litsky for his longtime service to the District as an Advisory Neighborhood
86 Commissioner for the Southwest waterfront community.

87 Sec. 3. This resolution shall take effect immediately.
