A CEREMONIAL RESOLUTION

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To celebrate May 12, 2023 as “Early Childhood Educator Appreciation Day” and to recognize and honor all early childhood educators of the District of Columbia.

WHEREAS, the District of Columbia is committed to supporting the health, well-being, development, and success of young children and youth living in the nation’s capital;

WHEREAS, children deserve skilled, educated, competent, consistent, and well-compensated early childhood educators;

WHEREAS, a high percentage of District mothers and birth-givers return to work in the first six weeks after the birth of a child, and working families need sufficient, high-quality child care services to be available in the community to support them;

19 WHEREAS, child care providers serve a vital role in our community, not only caring for 20 and educating our children, but also supporting parent and guardian participation in the District
21 workforce;

22 WHEREAS children’s cognitive, physical, social, emotional, language, and literacy
23 development are built on a foundation of positive interactions between children and adults, peers,
24 and their environment;

25 WHEREAS, high-quality early care and education work to ameliorate the effects of 26 systemic poverty – from recognizing and remediating developmental delays, to identifying and 27 helping prevent child neglect – leading to positive outcomes for individual children and their 28 homes and communities;

29 WHEREAS, the Council of the District of Columbia has been a supporter of families and 30 early childhood educators, including by authorizing an Early Childhood Educator Compensation
31 Task Force, funding the Early Childhood Educator Pay Equity Fund, and expanding Paid Family
32 and Medical Leave benefits, among others;

33 WHEREAS, as a result of these programs and initiatives, the number of early childhood
34 educators who are on the path towards pay parity and economic progress has increased, thereby
35 increasing the ability to support high-quality programs for all District families;

36 WHEREAS, we must continually work towards creating a diverse, inclusive, and 37 equitable early childhood education workforce to the ensure all people working in the child care
38 sector thrive personally and professionally, to create a robust provider and educator pipeline that 39 can be developed and maintained, and to strengthen culturally diverse and inclusive care
40 experiences for children;

41 WHEREAS, early educators deserve appreciation for their irreplaceable work to advance 42 the early childhood profession; and

43 WHEREAS, Child Care Provider Appreciation Day has been celebrated nationally and 44 annually since 1996 on the Friday before Mothers’ Day as an occasion to “amplify our nation’s 45 collective gratitude for those who support the social, emotional, and physical care of our youngest 46 children”.

47 RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this
48 resolution may be cited as the “Early Childhood Educator Appreciation Day Ceremonial
49 Recognition Resolution of 2023”.

50 Sec. 2. The Council of the District of Columbia celebrates May 12, 2023 as “DC Early 51 Childhood Educator Appreciation Day,” honors the contributions of all early childhood educators
52 to the development and well-being to our District children and families, and recognizes that 53 investments to stabilize, sustain, and support child care and early learning will support children,
54 youth, educators, families, and our larger economy through pandemic recovery and beyond.

55 Sec. 3. This resolution shall take effect immediately upon the first date of publication in the 56 District of Columbia Register.
