WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano Co-Founded Grupo de Artistas Latino Americanos (GALA) Hispanic Theatre with his wife Rebecca in 1976;

WHEREAS, the GALA Hispanic Theatre is a National Center for Latino Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. that develops and produces works that explore the breadth of Latino performing arts;

WHEREAS, the GALA Hispanic Theatre provides opportunities for the Latino artist, educates youth, and engages the entire community in an exchange of ideas and perspectives;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano believed that exceptional artistry transcends language, class, and cultural differences, and that all in our community deserve access to it and to have their stories told;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano was committed to nurturing young Latino talent and expanding the appreciation of Latino and Hispanic theater in the U.S.;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano acted in, directed, or produced nearly three hundred productions throughout his tenure;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano received the Order of Queen Isabella in 2006 from King Juan Carlos I for promoting Spanish culture;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano and his wife, Rebecca Medrano, were named Washingtonians of the Year by the Washingtonian magazine in 2010;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano was recognized as a “Visionary” by the Mayor’s Arts Awards and received an Immigrant Achievement Award from the American Immigration Council in 2014;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano passed away on May 22, 2023 at the age of 80 and is survived by his wife Rebecca, his three sons Octavio, Juan Gabriel, and Alexis;

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano has improved the lives of citizens of the District of Columbia through his artistic vision and dedication to empowering Latino artists and sharing the Latino arts and cultures with a diverse audience; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Medrano’s unforgettable legacy will live on through his artistic and cultural contributions to the District of Columbia and the Latino community.

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this resolution may be cited as the “Hugo Medrano Memorial Recognition Resolution of 2023”.

Sec. 2. The Council of the District of Columbia recognizes and honors Hugo Medrano for his service to the citizens of Washington, D.C. and his commitment to promoting the representation of Latino culture in the performing arts and preserving the richness and diversity of Hispanic heritage for generations that follow.

94 Sec. 3. This resolution shall take effect immediately upon the first date of publication in the 95 District of Columbia Register.
