

MURIEL BOWSER
MAYOR

June 6, 2024

The Honorable Phil Mendelson
Chairman
Council of the District of Columbia
John A. Wilson Building
1350 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 504
Washington, DC 20004

Dear Chairman Mendelson:

In accordance with section 2 of the Confirmation Act of 1978, effective March 3, 1979 (D.C. Law 2-142; D.C. Official Code § 1-523.01) and pursuant to section 3 of the District of Columbia Election Code of 1955, approved August 12, 1955 (69 Stat. 699; D.C. Official Code § 1-1001.03), I am pleased to nominate the following person:

Mr. James Caleb Boggs, III
Garfield Street, NW
Washington, DC 20008
(Ward 3)

for reappointment as a member of the District of Columbia Board of Elections, for a term to end July 7, 2026.

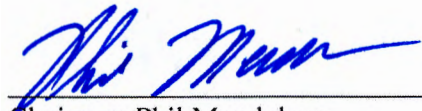

Enclosed, you will find biographical information detailing the experience of the above-mentioned nominee, together with a proposed resolution to assist the Council during the confirmation process.

I would appreciate the Council's earliest consideration of this nomination for confirmation. Please do not hesitate to contact me, or Steven Walker, Director, Mayor's Office of Talent and Appointments, should the Council require additional information.

Sincerely,

Muriel Bowser

Chairman Phil Mendelson
at the request of the Mayor

A PROPOSED RESOLUTION

IN THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

To confirm the reappointment of Mr. James Caleb Boggs, III as a member of the District of Columbia Board of Elections.

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, That this resolution may be cited as the "District of Columbia Board of Elections James Caleb Boggs, III Confirmation Resolution of 2024".

Sec. 2. The Council of the District of Columbia confirms the reappointment of:

Mr. James Caleb Boggs, III
Garfield Street, NW
Washington, DC 2008
(Ward 3)

as a member of the District of Columbia Board of Elections, established by section 3 of the District of Columbia Election Code of 1955, approved August 12, 1955 (69 Stat. 699; D.C. Official Code § 1-1001.03), for a term to end July 7, 2026.

Sec. 3. The Council of the District of Columbia shall transmit a copy of this resolution, upon its adoption, to the nominee and to the Office of the Mayor.

Sec. 4. This resolution shall take effect immediately.

J.C. is a partner with the international law firm of King & Spalding and co-leads the firm's State Attorney General and FinTech, Blockchain and Cryptocurrency practices. A high-energy, strategic thinker, he helps multinational companies navigate the political and regulatory issues often associated with doing business in the U.S. and abroad.

Recognized by Chambers USA as “one of the most proficient attorneys on the scene,” J.C. represents a broad range of companies, trade associations and non-profit entities before policymakers around the world and at all levels of government. He regularly interfaces with financial regulators on policy and institution-specific issues relating to fintech and cryptocurrency regulation, data privacy and security, national security, and technological innovation. He also assists clients to develop comments, white papers, and other advocacy communications on proposed regulatory and legislative changes.

While serving as counsel to the U.S. Senate Banking and Governmental Affairs committees, J.C. earned a reputation as a trusted advisor to Members of Congress on both sides of the aisle. While there, he helped draft the landmark Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act and the bipartisan Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995. He was later appointed by President George W. Bush to a six-year term as U.S. representative to the World Bank’s International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes. Earlier in his career, J.C. worked for the Delaware Court of Chancery, the Hong Kong Attorney General’s Office and an international law firm based in Sydney, Australia.

J.C. is active with a number of non-profit organizations and serves on the boards of The Catholic University of America Columbus School of Law, the Parliamentary Intelligence-Security Forum, the Global Center for Social Entrepreneurship and the First State Fintech Lab. He previously served as chairman of Jobs for Delaware Graduates and continues as pro bono General Counsel to Jobs for America’s Graduates. He also established the J. Caleb Boggs Scholarship for Public Service at the University of Delaware in honor of his grandfather and namesake, former U.S. Congressman, Senator and Governor of Delaware, J. Caleb Boggs.

Born in Washington, DC, J.C. spent his formative years in Wilmington, Delaware. He started his legal career as a judicial law clerk to then-Vice Chancellor Carolyn Berger of the Delaware Chancery Court. He also worked for two U.S. Senators from Delaware - William V. Roth, Jr. and Joseph R. Biden, Jr.

J.C. enjoys open water swimming and was recognized in the Washington Post for swimming competitively in all 50 states. He is also a certified ski instructor. J.C. and his wife, Bhavana (also an attorney at Marriott, live in the Woodley Park neighborhood of Washington, D.C.
