SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The Florida Voter Registration Act delineates the qualifications and requirements necessary for a person to register to vote in Florida. In order to become a registered voter in Florida, a person must register pursuant to The Florida Election Code and must be at least 18 years of age, a citizen of the United States, a legal resident of Florida, and a legal resident of the county in which the person seeks to be registered.

Current law requires that certain voter registration information held by an agency remain confidential and exempt from public record requirements. The following voter registration information is protected from disclosure:

- All declinations to register to vote;
- Information relating to the place where a person registered to vote or where a person updated a voter registration; and
- The social security number, driver license number, and Florida identification number of a voter registration applicant or voter.

The bill expands the public record exemption to make the date and month of birth, telephone number, and email address of a voter or voter registration applicant held by an agency confidential and exempt from public record requirements. However, this confidential and exempt information must be made available to the following entities:

- The individual whose information was made confidential and exempt;
- A canvassing board or an election official in his or her official capacity; and
- A political party or official thereof, a candidate who has filed qualification papers, an elected official, or a registered political committee, for political purposes only.

The bill provides for repeal of the exemption on October 2, 2026, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature. The bill provides a public necessity statement as required by the State Constitution.

Article I, s. 24(c) of the Florida Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage of a newly created or expanded public record or public meeting exemption. The bill expands a public record exemption; thus, it requires a two-thirds vote for final passage.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

Public Records

Article I, section 24(a) of the Florida Constitution sets forth the state's public policy regarding access to government records. This section guarantees every person a right to inspect or copy any public record of the legislative, executive and judicial branch of government. The Legislature, however, may provide by general law for the exemption of records from the requirements of Article I, section 24(a) of the Florida Constitution.<sup>1</sup> The general law must state with specificity the public necessity justifying the exemption and must be no more broad than necessary to accomplish its purpose.<sup>2</sup>

Public policy regarding access to government records is addressed further in s. 119.07(1)(a), F.S., which guarantees every person a right to inspect and copy any state, county, or municipal record. Furthermore, the Open Government Sunset Review Act<sup>3</sup> provides that a public record or public meeting exemption may be created or maintained only if it serves an identifiable public purpose and is no more broad than necessary.<sup>4</sup> An identifiable public purpose is served if the exemption meets one of the following purposes and the Legislature finds that the purpose is sufficiently compelling to override the strong public policy of open government and cannot be accomplished without the exemption:

1. Allow the state or its political subdivisions to effectively and efficiently administer a governmental program, which administration would be significantly impaired without the exemption.
2. Protect sensitive personal information that, if released, would be defamatory or would jeopardize an individual's safety; however, only the identity of an individual may be exempted under this provision.
3. Protect trade or business secrets.<sup>5</sup>

Furthermore the Act requires the automatic repeal of a public record exemption on October 2nd of the fifth year after its creation or substantial amendment, unless the Legislature reenacts the exemption.<sup>6</sup> Specified questions must be considered by the Legislature during the review process.<sup>7</sup>

Voter Registration

The Florida Voter Registration Act delineates the qualifications and requirements necessary for a person to register to vote in Florida.<sup>8</sup> In order to become a registered voter in Florida, a person must register pursuant to The Florida Election Code<sup>9</sup> and must be at least 18 years of age, a citizen of the United States, a legal resident of Florida, and a legal resident of the county in which the person seeks to be registered.<sup>10</sup>

The Department of State must prescribe by rule a uniform statewide voter registration application.<sup>11</sup> The application must be designed to elicit the following information from the applicant:

<sup>2</sup> FLA. CONST. art. I, s. 24(c).

<sup>5</sup> S. 119.15(6)(b), F.S.

<sup>7</sup> S. 119.15(6)(a), F.S., requires the Legislature consider the following questions as part of the review process:

1) What specific records or meetings are affected by the exemption? ; 2) Whom does the exemption uniquely affect, as opposed to the general public? ; 3) What is the identifiable public purpose or goal of the exemption? ; 4) Can the information contained in the records or discussed in the meeting be readily obtained by alternative means? If so, how? ; 5) Is the record or meeting protected by another exemption? ; 6) Are there multiple exemptions for the same type of record or meeting that it would be appropriate to merge?

<sup>11</sup> S. 97.052(1), F.S.; Fla. Admin. Code R. 1S-2.040 incorporating form DS-DE 39.

- The applicant's name, date of birth, address of legal residence;
- E-mail address;
- County of legal residence;
- Race or ethnicity;
- State or country of birth;
- Sex;
- Party affiliation;
- Whether the applicant needs assistance in voting;
- Name and address where last registered;
- Last four digits of the applicant's social security number;
- Florida driver license number or the identification number;
- An indication, if applicable, that the applicant has not been issued a Florida driver license, a Florida identification card, or a social security number;
- Telephone number (optional);
- Signature of applicant under penalty for false swearing pursuant to law, by which the person subscribes to the oath and swears that the information contained in the registration application is true;
- Whether the applicant has been convicted of a felony, and, if convicted, has had his or her civil rights restored; and
- Whether the applicant has been adjudicated mentally incapacitated with respect to voting or, if so adjudicated, has had his or her right to vote restored.<sup>12</sup>

Notwithstanding all the information required to be on the voter registration application, a voter registration will be considered complete if it contains the following information:

- The applicant's name, address of legal residence, and date of birth.
- A mark in the checkbox affirming the applicant is a citizen of the United States.
- The applicant's current and valid Florida driver license number or identification card number or, if the applicant does not have a Florida driver license or identification card, the last four numbers of the applicant's social security number.<sup>13</sup>
- A mark in the checkbox affirming that the applicant has not been convicted of a felony or that, if convicted, the applicant has had his or her civil rights restored.
- A mark in the checkbox affirming that the applicant has not been adjudicated mentally incapacitated with respect to voting or that, if so adjudicated, the applicant has had his or her right to vote restored.
- The applicant's signature or a digital signature transmitted by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles.<sup>14</sup>

Public Record Exemption

<sup>13</sup> If an applicant has not been issued a current and valid Florida driver license, Florida identification card, or social security number, the applicant must affirm this fact in the manner prescribed in the uniform statewide voter registration application. Section 97.053(5)(a)5.b., F.S.

Current law requires that certain voter registration information held by an agency<sup>15</sup> remain confidential and exempt from public record requirements.<sup>16</sup> The following voter registration information is protected from disclosure:

- All declinations to register to vote;
- Information relating to the place where a person registered to vote or where a person updated a voter registration; and
- The social security number, driver license number, and Florida identification number of a voter registration applicant or voter.

In addition, the signature of a voter registration applicant or a voter is exempt from the copying requirements of s. 119.07(1), F.S.

Effect of Proposed Change

The bill expands the public record exemption for certain voter registration information to make the date and month of birth, telephone number, and email address of a voter or voter registration applicant held by an agency confidential and exempt from public record requirements. However, this exempt information must be made available to the following entities:

- The individual whose information was made confidential and exempt;
- A canvassing board or an election official in his or her official capacity; and
- A political party or official thereof, a candidate who has filed qualification papers, an elected official, or a registered political committee, for political purposes only.

The bill provides a public necessity statement as required by the State Constitution, specifying that a voter or voter registration date of birth, telephone number, and email address is personal and sensitive and could be misused by a dishonest person to commit identity theft. The public necessity statement also provides that this personal information could result in voter fraud if a person other than the voter requests a vote-by-mail ballot.

The bill provides for repeal of the exemption on October 2, 2026, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. amends 97.0585, F.S., relating to public records exemptions for information concerning voters and voter registration applicants.

Section 2. provides a public necessity statement.

Section 3. provides an effective date of July 1, 2021.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

---

<sup>15</sup> S. 119.011, F.S., defines “agency” to mean any state, county, district, authority, or municipal officer, department, division, board, bureau, commission, or other separate unit of government created or established by law including, for the purposes of this chapter, the Commission on Ethics, the Public Service Commission, and the Office of Public Counsel, and any other public or private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of any public agency.

<sup>16</sup> There is a difference between records the Legislature designates as exempt from public record requirements and those the Legislature deems confidential and exempt. A record classified as exempt from public disclosure may be disclosed under certain circumstances. See WFTV, Inc. v. The School Board of Seminole, 874 So. 2d 48, 53 (Fla. 5th DCA 2004), review denied 892 So. 2d 1015 (Fla. 2004); City of Riviera Beach v. Barfield, 642 So. 2d 1135 (Fla. 4th DCA 1994); Williams v. City of Minneola, 575 So. 2d 687 (Fla. 5th DCA 1991). If the Legislature designates a record as confidential and exempt from public disclosure, such record may not be released by the custodian of public records to anyone other than the persons or entities specifically designated in statute. See Attorney General Opinion 85-62 (August 1, 1985).

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

See Fiscal Comments.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

None.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

The bill could have a minimal fiscal impact on agencies because agency staff responsible for complying with public records requests may require training related to creation of the public record exemption. In addition, agencies could incur costs associated with redacting the exempt information prior to releasing a record. The costs would be absorbed as they are part of the day-to-day responsibilities of agencies.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Not applicable. The bill does not appear to require counties or municipalities to take an action requiring the expenditures of funds, reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenue in the aggregate, nor reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

2. Other:

Vote Requirement

Article 1, s. 24(c) of the State Constitution requires a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting for final passage of a newly created public record or public meeting exemption. The bill expands a public record exemption; thus, it requires a two-thirds vote for final passage.

Public Necessity Statement

Article 1, s. 24(c) of the State Constitution requires a public necessity statement for a newly created or expanded public record or public meeting exemption. The bill expands a public record exemption; thus, it includes a public necessity statement.

Breadth of Exemption

Article 1, s. 24(c) of the State Constitution requires a newly created public record or public meeting exemption to be no broader than necessary to accomplish the stated purpose of the law. The bill expands a public record exemption for certain information related to voters and voter registration applicants. As such, the exemption does not appear to be in conflict with the constitutional requirement that it be no broader than necessary to accomplish its purpose.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

None.

IV. AMENDMENTS/ COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On March 29, 2021, the Public Integrity & Elections Committee adopted a proposed committee substitute (PCS) and reported the bill favorably as a committee substitute. The PCS maintained the underlying bill and removed the provision that made the residence address of a voter in the voter registration information exempt from public records.

This analysis is drafted to the committee substitute as passed by the Public Integrity & Elections Committee.
