 207 exemption.

208 5. This paragraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset
 209 Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15, and shall stand 210 repealed on October 2, 2017, unless reviewed and saved from 211 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

212 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
 213 necessity that the names of the spouses and children of active
 214 or former sworn or civilian law enforcement personnel be exempt
 215 from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State
 216 Constitution. Sworn and civilian law enforcement personnel in 217 this state perform a variety of important duties that ensure 218 public safety and welfare and encourage safe and civil 219 communities. Correctional and correctional probation officers 220 work with felons, many of whom have committed violent crimes.
 221 Personnel of the Department of Children and Families whose 222 duties include the investigation of abuse, neglect, 223 exploitation, fraud, theft, or other criminal activities, and 224 personnel of the Department of Health, work with individuals who

HB 731

2013

225 may be a danger to their own children and families, as well as 226 the children of others. Personnel of the Department of Revenue
227 or local governments whose responsibilities include revenue
228 collection and enforcement or child support enforcement
229 investigate and bring enforcement actions against individuals 230 who have failed to pay their lawful taxes or failed to pay to 231 support their children. As a result of their duties, these sworn 232 and civilian law enforcement personnel often come in close 233 contact with individuals who not only may be a threat to these 234 personnel, but who might seek to take revenge against them by 235 harming their spouses and children. Permitting access to the 236 names of spouses and children of active or former sworn or 237 civilian law enforcement personnel provides a means by which 238 individuals who have been investigated, arrested, interrogated,
239 or incarcerated can identify and cause physical or emotional 240 harm to these spouses and children. The Legislature therefore 241 finds that the harm that may result from the release of the 242 names of spouses and children of such law enforcement personnel 243 outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the 244 disclosure of the information.

245 Section 3. This act shall take effect October 1, 2013.
