 11 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
 12

13 Section 1. Subsection (2) of section 943.0583, Florida
 14 Statutes, is amended to read:

15 943.0583 Human trafficking victim expunction.—

16 (2) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon 17 the filing of a petition as provided in this section, any court 18 in the circuit in which the petitioner was arrested, so long as 19 the court has jurisdiction over the class of offense or offenses 20 sought to be expunged, may order a criminal justice agency to 21 expunge the criminal history record of a victim of human 22 trafficking who complies with the requirements of this section.
 23 A petition need not be filed in the court where the petitioner's
 24 criminal proceeding or proceedings originally occurred. This 25 section does not confer any right to the expunction of any

26 criminal history record, and any request for expunction of a 27 criminal history record may be denied at the discretion of the 28 court. The clerk of the court may not charge a filing fee,
29 service charge, or copy fee or any other charge for a petition
30 filed under this section. The clerk of the court shall treat a 31 petition seeking to expunge more than one eligible case as a 32 single petition.

33 (b) A petition filed under this section and all pleadings
34 and documents related to the petition are confidential and 35 exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State
36 Constitution. This paragraph is subject to the Open Government
37 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and is repealed
38 on October 2, 2028, unless reviewed and saved from repeal
39 through reenactment by the Legislature.

40 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
41 necessity that a petition filed under s. 943.0583, Florida
42 Statutes, and all pleadings and documents related to the 43 petition be made confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1),
44 Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Article I of the State 45 Constitution. Persons who are victims of human trafficking and 46 who have been arrested for offenses committed, or reported to 47 have been committed, as a result of being trafficked are 48 themselves victims of crimes. These victims face barriers to 49 employment and loss of other life opportunities, and the fact 50 that the victims are seeking expungement, as well as the

51 information contained in related pleadings and documents, would 52 expose these victims to possible discrimination due to details
53 of their past lives becoming public knowledge. Therefore, it is 54 necessary that these petitions, pleadings, and related documents 55 be made confidential in order for human trafficking victims to 56 have the chance to rebuild their lives and reenter society.

57 Section 3. This act shall take effect October 1, 2023.
