An act relating to residential tenancies; creating s. 83.425, F.S.; preempting the regulation of residential tenancies and the landlord-tenant relationship to the state; specifying that the act supersedes certain local regulations; amending ss. 83.57 and 83.575, F.S.; revising how much notice is required to terminate certain tenancies; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Section 83.425, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

83.425 Preemption.—The regulation of residential tenancies, the landlord-tenant relationship, and all other matters covered under this part are preempted to the state. This section supersedes any local government regulations on matters covered under this part, including, but not limited to, the screening process used by a landlord in approving tenancies; security deposits; rental agreement applications and fees associated with such applications; terms and conditions of rental agreements; the rights and responsibilities of the landlord and tenant; disclosures concerning the premises, the dwelling unit, the rental agreement, or the rights and
