1 House Resolution

2 A resolution recognizing February 14, 2022, as 3 "Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School Memorial Day" in 4 Florida, a day of remembrance for all of those who 5 lost their lives, or whose lives were forever changed,
6 as a result of the mass shooting at Marjory Stoneman
7 Douglas High School in Parkland.

8
9 WHEREAS, on February 14, 2018, Valentine's Day, students, 10 faculty, and staff at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in 11 Parkland arrived on campus for a school day that began like any 12 other, and

13 WHEREAS, at 2:19 p.m., a 19-year-old former student of the 14 school was dropped off by an Uber driver on the east side of the 15 Marjory Stoneman Douglas campus, and

16 WHEREAS, the young man was carrying a rifle bag, and 17 minutes later entered the east hallway doors of Building 12 on 18 the campus, where he removed his semiautomatic rifle from the 19 bag, loaded the weapon, and donned a magazine-carrying vest, and

20 WHEREAS, at 2:21 p.m., the young man fired the first rounds
21 to the west of the first floor hallway, striking four students, 22 only one of whom survived her injuries, and

23 WHEREAS, in the minutes that followed, the young man 24 repeatedly fired into classrooms and at those within his line of 25 sight in the hallway, and

26 WHEREAS, at 2:22 p.m., the first 911 call, coming from 27 inside Building 12, was received by a law enforcement
 28 communications center in Coral Springs, and

29 WHEREAS, at 2:27 p.m., the young man fired his last 30 gunshot, entered the west stairwell on the third floor of 31 Building 12, placed his rifle vest and 180 rounds of live rounds
 32 on the ground, and ran down the stairs, joining in with a large 33 group of students who were fleeing the campus, and

34 WHEREAS, in those terrifying 6 minutes from the beginning 35 of the assault to his exit from the building, the young man took 36 the lives of 17 members of the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High 37 School family and wounded 17 others, many of them gravely, and 38 traumatized thousands of others, and

39 WHEREAS, those who died were 14-year-old Alyssa Alhadeff,
 40 an honor student and athlete; Scott Beigel, age 35, a teacher
 41 and coach with a passion for volunteerism; 14-year-old Martin
 42 Duque Anguiano, Jr., an honor student and JROTC cadet corporal;
 43 17-year-old Nicholas Dworet, captain of the swim team and 44 selected by faculty as one of twenty first-class graduating

72 football, and who played the trombone in the Marjory Stoneman
73 Douglas Eagle Regiment Marching Band; 16-year-old Carmen
74 Schentrup, a National Merit Scholar who wanted to cure ALS and 75 loved to explore the world, especially enjoying national parks;

76 | and 15-year-old Peter Wang, who embodied the values espoused in
 77 | the JROTC program – honor, duty, respect, loyalty, selfless
 78 | service, and courage – and who was posthumously admitted to the
 79 | West Point class of 2025 and awarded the institution's Medal of
 80 | Heroism for his actions to save fellow students on that day, and

81 | WHEREAS, on February 14, 2018, amid the terror and carnage
 82 | of that day, there were extraordinary acts of courage by members
 83 | of the Marjory Stoneman Douglas family, several of whom gave
 84 | their lives in the protection of others, and

85 | WHEREAS, the events of February 14, 2018, at Marjory
 86 | Stoneman Douglas High School forever changed the lives of the
 87 | students, faculty, and staff who survived the massacre and their
 88 | family members, the first responders who rushed to the scene,
 89 | the health care workers who tended to the wounded, and all who
 90 | witnessed the carnage, and many more throughout the community,
 91 | and

92 | WHEREAS, out of the tragedy came hope in the scores of
 93 | students who survived the attack and who joined together to make
 94 | change and attempt to ensure that the events of February 14,
 95 | 2018, will not be forgotten, and the several family members who
 96 | chose to turn their pain into purpose by advocating for the
 97 | enactment of laws, policies, and practices to make our schools
 98 | safer, NOW, THEREFORE,
