

House Bill 1325

By: Representatives Blackmon of the 146th, Gaines of the 120th, Kelley of the 16th, Oliver of the 82nd, and Crowe of the 118th

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

1 To amend Part 1 of Article 2 of Chapter 5 of Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia
2 Annotated, relating to tax exemptions, so as to provide for a state-wide homestead exemption
3 from ad valorem taxes for certain senior citizens who volunteer with local governments in 4 an amount to be determined by such local governments; to provide for definitions; to specify
5 the terms and conditions of the exemption and the procedures relating thereto; to provide for 6 applicability; to provide for approval and identification of additional terms and conditions
7 by local governing authorities; to provide for related matters; to provide for compliance with 8 constitutional requirements; to provide for a referendum, effective dates, and automatic
9 repeal; to provide for contingent repeal; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

10 BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

11 SECTION 1.

12 Part 1 of Article 2 of Chapter 5 of Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated,
13 relating to tax exemptions, is amended by adding a new Code section to read as follows:

14 "48-5-44.2.

15 (a) For purposes of this Code section, the term:

16 (1) 'Ad valorem taxes' means all ad valorem taxes levied by, for, or on behalf of the state
17 or any county, consolidated government, municipality, or local school district in this 18 state, except for any ad valorem taxes levied to pay interest on and to retire bonded
19 indebtedness.

20 (2) 'Homestead' means homestead as defined and qualified in Code Section 48-5-40 of 21 the O.C.G.A., as amended.

22 (3) 'Senior citizen' means a person who is 70 years of age or older on or before January 1
23 of the year in which application for the exemption under subsection (b) of this Code
24 section is made.

25 (4) 'Volunteer work' means the performance of work by an individual as a volunteer,
26 during the year prior to the year in which application for the exemption under subsection
27 (b) of this Code section is made, for the local government from which the applicant seeks 28 an exemption pursuant to this Code section.

29 (b)(1) Subject to local approval as provided for in paragraph (3) of this subsection, each 30 resident of this state who is a senior citizen is granted an exemption on that person's 31 homestead from ad valorem taxes in an amount as provided for pursuant to the ordinance
32 or resolution adopted pursuant to paragraph (3) of this subsection.

33 (2) Except as provided for in subsection (c) of this Code section, no exemption provided 34 for in this subsection shall transfer to any subsequent owner of the property, and the 35 assessed value of the property shall be as provided by law.

36 (3)(A) The exemption provided for in paragraph (1) of this subsection shall not be 37 applicable to any county, consolidated government, municipality, or local school
38 district in this state until January 1 of the calendar year after which the governing
39 authority of the county, consolidated government, municipality, or local school district
40 adopts such exemption by ordinance or resolution as provided for in subparagraph (B)
41 of this paragraph.

42 (B) An ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this paragraph 43 shall include:

44 (i) The maximum dollar amount of the available exemption, which amount shall not 45 exceed the lesser of $500.00 or the total amount of the tax owed per year;

46 (ii) The maximum number of senior citizens who may claim the exemption in any 47 taxable year, or if there is no such maximum;

48 (iii) The hourly credit for volunteer work, which shall not exceed $10.00 per hour;

49 (iv) The date in each taxable year by which application shall be made for the 50 exemption; and

51 (v) The types of volunteer work that shall be eligible toward the exemption.

52 (c) The surviving spouse of the person who was granted the exemption provided for in 53 subsection (b) of this Code section shall continue to receive such exemption so long as such 54 surviving spouse continues to occupy the residence as a homestead.

55 (d) A person shall not receive the homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this
56 Code section for any taxable year unless and until such person or such person's agent 57 annually files an application with the tax receiver or tax commissioner that person's 58 respective local government or governments charged with the duty of receiving returns of 59 property for taxation. Such application shall provide the person's age and such additional 60 information relative to receiving such exemption as will enable such tax receiver or tax 61 commissioner to make a determination regarding the eligibility of such person for such 62 exemption. Such tax receiver or tax commissioner shall provide application forms for this 63 purpose.

64 (e) The exemption shall be claimed and returned as provided in Code Section 48-5-50.1.
65 It shall be the duty of any person granted the homestead exemption under subsection (b)
66 of this Code section to notify the tax receiver or tax commissioner of the local government 67 or governments charged with the duty of receiving returns of property for taxation in the 68 event such person for any reason becomes ineligible for such exemption.

69 (f) The homestead exemption granted by subsection (b) of this Code section shall be in 70 addition to and not in lieu of any other homestead exemption applicable to ad valorem 71 taxes.

72 (g) The exemption granted by subsection (b) of this Code section shall apply to all taxable
73 years beginning on or after January 1, 2025."

74 SECTION 2.

75 In accordance with the requirements of Article VII, Section II of the Constitution of the State
76 of Georgia, this Act shall not become law unless it receives the requisite two-thirds' majority
77 vote in both the Senate and the House of Representatives.

78 SECTION 3.

79 The Secretary of State shall call and conduct an election as provided in this section for the 80 purpose of submitting this Act to the electors of the entire state for approval or rejection. The 81 Secretary of State shall conduct such election no later than the Tuesday next following the 82 first Monday in November, 2024, and shall issue the call and conduct such election as 83 provided by general law. The Secretary of State shall cause the date and purpose of the 84 election to be published once a week for two weeks immediately preceding the date thereof
85 in the official organ of each county in the state. The ballot shall have written or printed
86 thereon the words:

87 "() YES Shall the Act be approved which provides a state-wide homestead
88 () NO exemption from ad valorem taxes for certain senior citizens who volunteer 89 with local governments in an amount to be determined by such local 90 governments, but not to exceed the lesser of $500.00 or the total amount of 91 the tax owed per year, subject to approval of and enactment of additional 92 terms and conditions by the applicable local governing authority?"

93 All persons desiring to vote for approval of the Act shall vote "Yes," and all persons desiring 94 to vote for rejection of the Act shall vote "No." If more than one-half of the votes cast on 95 such question are for approval of the Act, Section 1 of this Act shall become of full force and 96 effect on January 1, 2025; provided, however, that an amendment to the Constitution to
97 provide for local governments to have the option to offer a state-wide homestead exemption
98 from ad valorem taxes in an amount equal to any amount by which the current year assessed
99 value of a homestead exceeds the inflation rate from the adjusted base year value of such 100 homestead as provided by general law is ratified by the voters at the November, 2024, 101 state-wide general election. If such an amendment is not so ratified, then this Act shall not 102 become effective and shall stand repealed on January 1, 2025. If the Act is not so approved,
103 if the election is not conducted, or if the constitutional amendment is not ratified as provided
104 in this section, Section 1 of this Act shall not become effective and this Act shall be 105 automatically repealed on the first day of January immediately following such election date.
106 It shall be the duty of each county election superintendent to certify the results thereof to the 107 Secretary of State.

108 SECTION 4.

109 Except as otherwise provided in Section 3 of this Act, this Act shall become effective upon 110 its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law without such approval.

111 SECTION 5.

112 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
