

House Resolution 1108

By: Representatives Mathiak of the 74th, Greene of the 154th, Hutchinson of the 106th, and Burchett of the 176th

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing January 31, 2024, as Licensed Professional Counselors Appreciation Day at the 2 state capitol; and for other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, Licensed Professional Counselors (LPCs) in the State of Georgia provide vital 4 mental health services and actively work to bridge the gap in mental health disparities,
5 ensuring that individuals from all backgrounds, races, socio-economic statuses, and cultures 6 have equal access to quality mental health care; and

7 WHEREAS, these dedicated LPCs undergo rigorous training and education that encompasses 8 crucial areas such as psychopathology, testing and assessment, ethics, research, diversity, 9 career development, and human development, equipping them to address the multifaceted 10 challenges faced by our citizens; and

11 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia proudly recognizes and supports more than 8,740 LPCs 12 and more than 1,600 licensed associate professional counselors, each of whom contributes 13 significantly to the mental and emotional well-being of our community members, reinforcing 14 the strength and resilience of our great state; and

15 WHEREAS, inspired by the mission of the Licensed Professional Counselors Association 16 of Georgia (LPCAGA), which aims to support the profession and professionalism of 17 professional counselors, we acknowledge the pivotal role LPCs play in mental health 18 treatment, ensuring that every individual in need receives the quality care and support they 19 deserve; and

20 WHEREAS, the establishment of the 988-crisis line, an essential help line for those in dire 21 need, now has a more extensive network of dedicated practitioners to refer to, thanks largely 22 to the commitment and expertise of our LPCs; and

23 WHEREAS, we commend the autonomy and comprehensive capabilities of our LPCs who 24 are sanctioned to practice independently, bill insurance companies directly, diagnose clients, 25 administer vital clinical assessments, and conduct thorough mental health evaluations 26 independently.

27 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 28 the members of this body recognize January 31, 2024, as Licensed Professional Counselors 29 Appreciation Day at the state capitol and encourage all Georgians to recognize the 30 importance of healthy minds and the noble work of our state's Licensed Professional 31 Counselors.

32 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 33 and directed to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to the 34 public and the press.
