

House Resolution 1555

By: Representatives Campbell of the 35th, Erwin of the 32nd, Evans of the 89th, Glaize of the 67th, Adeyina of the 110th, and others

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing March 26, 2024, as Executive Function Day at the state capitol; and for other 2 purposes.

3 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia wants all students to reach their individual potential; and

4 WHEREAS, existing research and cognitive science are the backbone for personalized 5 learning; and

6 WHEREAS, literacy and numeracy are vital skills for academic success, and as research 7 shows, executive function is likely associated with reading comprehension through its 8 relation with decoding and oral language; and

9 WHEREAS, current research provides additional support for the role of executive function 10 in reading comprehension as a potentially crucial precursor to skilled reading; and

11 WHEREAS, in personalized learning, educators must explicitly teach students the skills of 12 executive function as the foundation before any other conditions for personalized learning 13 can be effectively pursued; and

14 WHEREAS, executive function is an umbrella term for the complex cognitive processes that 15 serve ongoing goal-directed behaviors; and

16 WHEREAS, executive function skills, which are well established in cognitive science, are 17 also the foundational cognitive processes needed for the "soft skills," "essential skills," and 18 "social emotional skills" students need for 21st century college, career, and community 19 success; and

20 WHEREAS, the skills of executive function (self-regulation, emotional responsibility, task 21 completion, working memory, cognitive flexibility, time management, and reflection) are 22 crucial to personalized learning and life-long learning; and

23 WHEREAS, explicit teaching of executive function leads to self-awareness, 24 self-empowerment, self-esteem, and necessary learning skills to ensure student, school, and 25 life success; and

26 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper to draw attention to the profound educational 27 impact of executive function on the education and lives of children, adults, and students in 28 the State of Georgia.

29 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 30 the members of this body recognize March 26, 2024, as Executive Function Day at the state 31 capitol during National Brain Awareness Month.

32 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 33 and directed to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to 34 members of the State Board of Education, the public, and the press.
