

House Resolution 81

By: Representatives McClain of the 109th, Okoye of the 102nd, Adeyina of the 110th, and Mitchell of the 88th

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing International Literacy Day, honoring the contributions of Trinity International 2 University of Ambassadors, and celebrating Dr. Jacqueline Mohair and Dr. Cheryl 3 Polote-Williamson; and for other purposes.

4 WHEREAS, International Literacy Day, established by UNESCO and observed annually on 5 September 8, highlights the critical importance of literacy in fostering education, social 6 inclusion, and sustainable development across the globe; and

7 WHEREAS, literacy is a fundamental right that empowers individuals, strengthens 8 communities, and drives societal progress, and this day serves as an opportunity to address 9 global literacy challenges and advocate for inclusive learning opportunities; and 10 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia recognizes and celebrates the transformative work of Dr.

11 Jacqueline Mohair, founder of Trinity International University of Ambassadors, TIUA
12 School of Business, and Trinity International Chaplaincy Institute, for her lifelong dedication 13 to advancing education, leadership, and global advocacy through innovative programs; and

14 WHEREAS, Dr. Mohair, through the Doctor of Philosophy in Christian Literary and Fine
15 Arts Leadership program, has created a platform for leaders to integrate faith, literary arts, 16 and leadership, providing a profound impact on communities in Georgia and worldwide; and

17 WHEREAS, the program is guided by Dr. Cheryl Polote-Williamson, Dean of Christian 18 Literary Arts and Leadership, whose mentorship and inclusion of the Soul Shift Coaching 19 Program equip students with purpose-driven leadership and mindset mastery; and

20 WHEREAS, the program emphasizes practical applications of literary and leadership skills, 21 with students presenting capstone projects or dissertations on global platforms, including the 22 United Nations International Literacy Day, amplifying their contributions to literacy 23 advocacy; and

24 WHEREAS, the State of Georgia acknowledges the critical role of literacy in creating 25 equitable opportunities and recognizes the contributions of Trinity International University
26 of Ambassadors in preparing leaders to address modern educational and social challenges 27 through faith and creativity.

28 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 29 the members of this body recognize International Literacy Day and its mission to promote 30 literacy as a tool for individual empowerment and global progress, honor Trinity 31 International University of Ambassadors, and celebrate the contributions of Dr. Jacqueline 32 Mohair and Dr. Cheryl Polote-Williamson in guiding students to become global advocates 33 for literacy and leadership.

34 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 35 and directed to make appropriate copies of this resolution available for distribution to Dr.
36 Jacqueline Mohair and Trinity International University of Ambassadors.
