6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

7 SECTION 1.

8 Article VI of the Constitution is amended by revising Sections I, II, III, IV, and VII as 9 follows:

10 "SECTION I.
11 JUDICIAL POWER

12 Paragraph I. Judicial power of the state. The judicial power of the state shall be vested 13 exclusively in the following classes of courts: magistrate courts, probate courts, juvenile 14 courts, state courts, superior courts, business court, Court of Appeals, and Supreme Court.
15 Magistrate courts, probate courts, juvenile courts, and state courts shall be courts of limited 16 jurisdiction. In addition, the General Assembly may establish or authorize the 17 establishment of municipal courts and may authorize administrative agencies to exercise
18 quasi-judicial powers. Municipal courts shall have jurisdiction over ordinance violations 19 and such other jurisdiction as provided by law. Except as provided in this Paragraph and 20 in Section X, municipal courts, county recorder's courts, and civil courts in existence on 21 June 30, 1983, and administrative agencies shall not be subject to the provisions of this 22 article. The General Assembly shall have the authority to confer 'by law' jurisdiction upon 23 municipal courts to try state offenses.

24 Paragraph II. Unified judicial system. All courts of the state shall comprise a unified 25 judicial system.

26 Paragraph III. Judges; exercise of power outside own court; scope of term 'judge.'
27 Provided the judge is otherwise qualified, a judge may exercise judicial power in any court 28 upon the request and with the consent of the judges of that court and of the judge's own
29 court under rules prescribed by law. The term 'judge,' as used in this article, shall include 30 Justices, judges, senior judges, magistrates, and every other such judicial office of whatever 31 name existing or created.

32 Paragraph IV. Exercise of judicial power. Each court may exercise such powers as 33 necessary in aid of its jurisdiction or to protect or effectuate its judgments; but only the 34 superior, business, and appellate courts shall have the power to issue process in the nature
35 of mandamus, prohibition, specific performance, quo warranto, and injunction. Each 36 superior court, business court, state court, and other courts of record may grant new trials 37 on legal grounds.

38 Paragraph V. Uniformity of jurisdiction, powers, etc. Except as otherwise provided in 39 this Constitution, the courts of each class shall have uniform jurisdiction, powers, rules of 40 practice and procedure, and selection, qualifications, terms, and discipline of judges. The 41 provisions of this Paragraph shall be effected by law within 24 months of the effective date 42 of this Constitution or, as related to the state-wide business court, within 24 months of the 43 effective date of the amendment creating such class of court.

44 Paragraph VI. Judicial circuits; courts in each county; court sessions. The state shall 45 be divided into judicial circuits, each of which shall consist of not less than one county.
46 Each county shall have at least one superior court, magistrate court, a probate court, and, 47 where needed, a state court and a juvenile court. The General Assembly may provide by 48 law that the judge of the probate court may also serve as the judge of the magistrate court.
49 In the absence of a state court or a juvenile court, the superior court shall exercise that 50 jurisdiction. Superior courts shall hold court at least twice each year in each county.

51 Paragraph VII. Judicial circuits, courts, and judgeships, law changed. The General 52 Assembly may abolish, create, consolidate, or modify judicial circuits and courts and 53 judgeships; but no circuit shall consist of less than one county.

54 Paragraph VIII. Transfer of cases. Any court shall transfer to the appropriate court in 55 the state any civil case in which it determines that jurisdiction or venue lies elsewhere.

56 Paragraph IX. Rules of evidence; law prescribed. All rules of evidence shall be as 57 prescribed by law.

58 Paragraph X. Authorization for pilot projects. The General Assembly may by general 59 law approved by a two-thirds' majority of the members of each house enact legislation 60 providing for, as pilot programs of limited duration, courts which are not uniform within 61 their classes in jurisdiction, powers, rules of practice and procedure, and selection, 62 qualifications, terms, and discipline of judges for such pilot courts and other matters 63 relative thereto. Such legislation shall name the political subdivision, judicial circuit, and 64 existing courts affected and may, in addition to any other power, grant to such court created 65 as a pilot program the power to issue process in the nature of mandamus, prohibition, 66 specific performance, quo warranto, and injunction. The General Assembly shall provide 67 by general law for a procedure for submitting proposed legislation relating to such pilot 68 programs to the Judicial Council of Georgia or its successor. Legislation enacted pursuant 69 to this Paragraph shall not deny equal protection of the laws to any person in violation of 70 Article I, Section I, Paragraph II of this Constitution.

183 office, or for willful and persistent failure to perform the duties of office, or for habitual 184 intemperance, or for conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude, or for conduct 185 prejudicial to the administration of justice which brings the judicial office into disrepute.
186 Any judge may be retired for disability which constitutes a serious and likely permanent 187 interference with the performance of the duties of office. The Supreme Court shall adopt 188 rules of implementation.

189 (b)(1) Upon indictment for a felony by a grand jury of this state or by a grand jury of 190 the United States of any judge, the Attorney General or district attorney shall transmit a 191 certified copy of the indictment to the Judicial Qualifications Commission. The 192 commission shall, subject to subparagraph (b)(2) of this Paragraph, review the 193 indictment, and, if it determines that the indictment relates to and adversely affects the 194 administration of the office of the indicted judge and that the rights and interests of the 195 public are adversely affected thereby, the commission shall suspend the judge 196 immediately and without further action pending the final disposition of the case or until 197 the expiration of the judge's term of office, whichever occurs first. During the term of 198 office to which such judge was elected and in which the indictment occurred, if a nolle
199 prosequi is entered, if the public official is acquitted, or if after conviction the conviction 200 is later overturned as a result of any direct appeal or application for a writ of certiorari, 201 the judge shall be immediately reinstated to the office from which he was suspended.
202 While a judge is suspended under this subparagraph and until initial conviction by the 203 trial court, the judge shall continue to receive the compensation from his office. After 204 initial conviction by the trial court, the judge shall not be entitled to receive the 205 compensation from his office. If the judge is reinstated to office, he shall be entitled to 206 receive any compensation withheld under the provisions of this subparagraph. For the 207 duration of any suspension under this subparagraph, the Governor shall appoint a 208 replacement judge. Upon a final conviction with no appeal or review pending, the office 209 shall be declared vacant and a successor to that office shall be chosen as provided in this 210 Constitution or the laws enacted in pursuance thereof.

211 (2) The commission shall not review the indictment for a period of 14 days from the 212 day the indictment is received. This period of time may be extended by the commission.
213 During this period of time, the indicted judge may, in writing, authorize the commission
214 to suspend him from office. Any such voluntary suspension shall be subject to the same 215 conditions for review, reinstatement, or declaration of vacancy as are provided in this 216 subparagraph for a nonvoluntary suspension.

217 (3) After any suspension is imposed under this subparagraph, the suspended judge may 218 petition the commission for a review. If the commission determines that the judge should 219 no longer be suspended, he shall immediately be reinstated to office.

220 (4)(A) The findings and records of the commission and the fact that the public 221 official has or has not been suspended shall not be admissible in evidence in any court 222 for any purpose.

223 (B) The findings and records of the commission shall not be open to the public except 224 as provided by the General Assembly by general law.

225 (5) The provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to any indictment handed down 226 prior to January 1, 1985.

227 (6) If a judge who is suspended from office under the provisions of this subparagraph 228 is not first tried at the next regular or special term following the indictment, the 229 suspension shall be terminated and the judge shall be reinstated to office. The judge shall 230 not be reinstated under this provision if he is not so tried based on a continuance granted 231 upon a motion made only by the defendant.

232 (c) Upon initial conviction of any judge for any felony in a trial court of this state or the 233 United States, regardless of whether the judge has been suspended previously under 234 subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph, such judge shall be immediately and without further 235 action suspended from office. While a judge is suspended from office under this 236 subparagraph, he shall not be entitled to receive the compensation from his office. If the 237 conviction is later overturned as a result of any direct appeal or application for a writ of 238 certiorari, the judge shall be immediately reinstated to the office from which he was 239 suspended and shall be entitled to receive any compensation withheld under the provisions 240 of this subparagraph. For the duration of any suspension under this subparagraph, the 241 Governor shall appoint a replacement judge. Upon a final conviction with no appeal or 242 review pending, the office shall be declared vacant and a successor to that office shall be 243 chosen as provided in this Constitution or the laws enacted in pursuance thereof. The 244 provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to any conviction rendered prior to 245 January 1, 1987.

246 Paragraph VIII. Due process; review by Supreme Court. No action shall be taken 247 against a judge except after hearing and in accordance with due process of law. No 248 removal or involuntary retirement shall occur except upon order of the Supreme Court after 249 review."
