By: Senators Dugan of the 30th, Tillery of the 19th, Payne of the 54th, Hufstetler of the 52nd, Gooch of the 51st and others

ADOPTED SENATE

A RESOLUTION

- 1 Creating the Senate Study Committee to Review Education Funding Mechanisms; and for 2 other purposes.
- 3 WHEREAS, the state funding for the operation of Georgia's public schools is based on the 4 Quality Basic Education Formula, which was established in 1985; and
- 5 WHEREAS, the formula calculates funding to local school systems based generally on 6 student counts and type of program; and
- 7 WHEREAS, it is the stated policy of the State of Georgia to ensure that every public school 8 student is educated in a facility which is structurally sound, well maintained, and has 9 adequate space and equipment to meet each student's instructional needs; and
- 10 WHEREAS, to accomplish this policy, the law provides for funding to local school systems 11 for purposes of capital outlay, including expenditures for the acquisition of fixed assets and 12 existing buildings, improvements to sites, construction of new buildings, building additions, 13 building upgrades for energy conservation, and new equipment and furnishings for 14 educational facilities; and

15 WHEREAS, state funding also includes equalization grants for local school systems in 16 Georgia that have relatively weak local tax bases and are unable to raise revenues sufficient 17 for facility needs and which serve as additional state capital outlay grants for short-term
18 periods, specifically targeted at low-income school systems, in order to help such systems 19 initiate what they have been unable to accomplish with existing revenue sources; and

20 WHEREAS, in the area of curriculum, the state provides for funding for virtual instruction; 21 and

22 WHEREAS, due to the complexity of education funding mechanisms and, specifically, the 23 mechanisms relating to the Quality Basic Education Formula, capital outlay, equalization
24 grants, and virtual schools, it is in the best interests of the citizens of this state to periodically 25 review and evaluate the efficacy and sufficiency of these and other funding mechanisms in 26 meeting the needs of Georgia's schools and students.
