

The Senate Committee on Banking and Financial Institutions offered the following substitute to SR 82:

A RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution so as to authorize the tax commissioner, subject
2 to local governing authority approval, to waive certain delinquent ad valorem property taxes,
3 penalty, and interest for the purpose of placing non-revenue generating and tax delinquent 4 property back in effective utilization status; to provide for procedures and conditions; to 5 provide for related matters; to provide for the submission of this amendment for ratification
6 or rejection; and for other purposes.

7 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

8 SECTION 1.

9 Article IX, Section II of the Constitution is amended adding a new paragraph to read as 10 follows:

11 "Paragraph X. Waiver of local ad valorem taxes. For the purpose of placing non-revenue 12 generating and tax delinquent property back in effective utilization status:

13 (1)(A) Upon written approval of the county governing authority, the tax 14 commissioner of any county may waive the collection of delinquent ad valorem 15 property taxes, penalty, and interest, due to the county and county school district on any 16 real or personal property, subject to the requirements of this subparagraph, in the event
17 such property failed to sell for the minimum bid price at a minimum of two auctions

18 properly conducted in the manner as provided by general law for sales of property by 19 public officials as a result of delinquent taxes without any regard for this Paragraph.
20 In such cases, and when otherwise authorized pursuant to this subparagraph, the tax 21 commissioner shall conduct a sale of such property in the same manner as provided for 22 sales of property by public officials as a result of delinquent taxes, but at a reduced
23 minimum bid tax sale as provided for in this subparagraph. Any waiver under this 24 subparagraph shall not be greater than the amount of delinquent ad valorem property 25 taxes, penalty, and interest due to the county and the county school district which 26 exceeds the sales price of such property generated by a reduced minimum bid tax sale 27 as provided for in this subparagraph.

28 (B) Each waiver of county and county school district taxes, penalty, and interest 29 under this subparagraph shall require a resolution adopted by such county governing 30 authority for a specific parcel or parcels of real property or for personal property.

31 (2)(A) Upon written approval of the city governing authority, the tax commissioner 32 of any county may waive the collection of delinquent ad valorem property taxes,
33 penalty, and interest due to a city located in such county, and independent school 34 district, if applicable, on any real or personal property, subject to the requirements of 35 this Paragraph, in the event such property failed to sell for the minimum bid price at a 36 minimum of two auctions properly conducted in the manner as provided by general law 37 for sales of property by public officials as a result of delinquent taxes without any 38 regard for this Paragraph. In such cases, and when otherwise authorized pursuant to 39 this subparagraph, the tax commissioner shall conduct a sale of such property in the 40 same manner as provided for sales of property by public officials as a result of 41 delinquent taxes, but at a reduced minimum bid tax sale as provided for in this 42 subparagraph. Any waiver under this subparagraph shall not be greater than the amount 43 of delinquent ad valorem property taxes, penalty, and interest due to the city.

44 (B) Each waiver of city and, if applicable, independent school district taxes, penalty, 45 and interest under this subparagraph shall require a resolution adopted by such city 46 governing authority for a specific parcel or parcels of real property or for personal 47 property.

48 (3)(A) With regard to the sale of real or personal property under this Paragraph, if 49 waiver of delinquent ad valorem property taxes, penalty, and interest is approved under 50 both subparagraphs (1) and (2), the tax commissioner shall combine the waiver
51 amounts, but if waiver of delinquent ad valorem property taxes, penalty, and interest 52 is not approved under both subparagraphs (1) and (2), the tax commissioner shall waive 53 only the amount provided under either subparagraph (1) or (2) as applicable.

54 (B) The owner of record and any person having record title or interest in or lien upon 55 any property to be sold under this Paragraph shall only be authorized to bid on such 56 property in an amount not less than the full amount of all delinquent ad valorem 57 property taxes, penalty, interest, and costs due on such property without regard to any 58 waiver amount under this Paragraph.

59 (C) The owner of record and any person having record title or interest in or lien upon 60 any property sold under this Paragraph shall be authorized to exercise any general law 61 right of redemption; provided, however, that:

62 (i) Such owner shall be required to pay to the purchaser under this Paragraph all 63 amounts specified under such general law, including taxes, assessments, and 64 premiums; and

65 (ii) The exact amount of any taxes waived under this Paragraph on such property
66 shall automatically attach as a tax lien upon such property and be subject to the same 67 provisions of law as for other properties upon which taxes are delinquent."

69 The above proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be published and submitted as 70 provided in Article X, Section I, Paragraph II of the Constitution. The ballot submitting the 71 above proposed amendment shall have written or printed thereon the following:

72 "() YES Shall the Constitution of Georgia be amended so as to authorize the tax 73 commissioner, subject to local governing authority approval, to waive 74 () NO certain delinquent ad valorem property taxes, penalty, and interest for the 75 purpose of placing non-revenue generating and tax delinquent property back 76 in effective utilization status?"

77 All persons desiring to vote in favor of ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "Yes."
78 All persons desiring to vote against ratifying the proposed amendment shall vote "No." If 79 such amendment shall be ratified as provided in said Paragraph of the Constitution, it shall 80 become a part of the Constitution of this state.
