TO: The Honorable David A. Tarnas, Chair

The Honorable Mahina Poepoe, Vice Chair
House Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs

Members of the House Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs

FROM: Kristin Izumi-Nitao, Executive Director
Campaign Spending Commission

SUBJECT: Testimony on H.B. No. 372, Relating to Campaign Contributions.

Tuesday, January 28, 2025
2:00 p.m., Conference Room 325 & Videoconference

Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this bill.<sup>1</sup> The Campaign Spending Commission (“Commission”) supports this bill.

In 2022, the Legislature enacted a ban on elected officials holding fundraisers during any regular or special session of the state Legislature. Hawaii Revised Statutes (“HRS”) §11-342(c). This measure seeks to close a loophole in the law by amending HRS §11-357 to ban elected officials from also soliciting or accepting campaign contributions during the same time period. It is common for elected officials to receive contributions outside of any formal fundraising event. This bill will prevent the corruption, or at least the appearance of corruption, of elected officials.

The Commission requests that this committee pass this measure.

House Committee on Judiciary & Hawaiian Affairs

Hawai'i Alliance for Progressive Action (HAPA) Strongly Supports: HB372 Tuesday, January 28, 2025 at 2:00pm; Conference Room 325

Dear Chair Tarnas, Vice Chair Poepoe, and Members of the Committee,

HAPA strongly supports HB372, which prohibits state and county elected officials from soliciting and accepting campaign contributions during any regular or special session of the state legislature, including any extension of any regular or special session or any legislative recess day, holiday, or weekend.

Public opinion strongly backs campaign finance reform. A 2022 Data for Progress poll found that 74% of Hawai'i voters support measures to limit campaign contributions. This widespread support demonstrates the public's desire for clearer rules around political fundraising.

Campaign spending data reveals significant disparities in Hawaii's electoral landscape. Incumbents in the Hawaii House spend an average of $57,883 per election, compared to just $16,500 for challengers. This funding gap creates an uneven playing field that undermines fair political competition.

HB372's impact becomes clear when examining re-election rates. Over the past decade, 90% of incumbents have won re-election. While experience matters, this high rate suggests that current fundraising practices may unfairly advantage sitting politicians.

Recent corruption cases further highlight the need for this legislation. Two state lawmakers pleaded guilty to bribery, exposing vulnerabilities in the current campaign finance system. This bill provides a direct response to these ethical breaches.

Other states have successfully implemented similar restrictions. Alaska, Florida, and Tennessee prohibit fundraising during legislative sessions. These laws have helped restore public trust in government and created clearer ethical boundaries.

We urge you to support HB372 to ensure that there is a separation from legislative work and fundraising, therefore legislators focus on serving constituents when they need to be.

Thank you for your support and consideration,

Comments: Dear Mr. Chairman and members of the Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs Committee, As former chair of the Commission to improve Standards of Conduct, I submit this testimony in support of HB 372 Relating to Campaign Contributions. The Commission proposed this bill to "reduce the negative perception of legislators soliciting or accepting contributions from individuals or organizations that have an interest in matters pending before the Legislature during a session." Commission December 1, 2022 Report at page 32. Passage of HB 372 would help restore public trust in the legislative process. Mahlo, Judge Daniel Foley (ret.)

Comments:

While I support the intent of this bill, you need to treat the legislature differently from the counties. The county councils meet year round. There is no comprehensible reason, except being lazy, to prohibit campaign contributions for the county officials when the legislature is in session. You are comparing apples with split peas. They are two different entities.

Dear Chair Tarnas, Vice Chair Poepoe, and Members of the Committee on Judiciary and Hawaiian Affairs,

I am a voter who lives in Hilo. I am testifying in support of HB 372 RELATING TO CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

This bill is one of many that grew out of the House Commission to Improve Standards of Conduct. The overarching goal of that commission is to restore the public’s faith in our state government by discouraging the “pay to play” political culture that led to criminal convictions of corrupt legislators.

This bill moves us toward that goal by prohibiting “state and county elected officials from soliciting and accepting campaign contributions during any regular session or special session of the state legislature.”

I urge you to pass HB 372 RELATING TO CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS and help to discourage the “pay to play” political culture in Hawai`i.

Thank you for the opportunity to submit testimony. Thank you for your service to the people of Hawai`i.

Aloha, I strongly support bills like this to help level the playing field of campaign donations. I also would like to see additional transparency and a requirement for who is doing the campaigning, as dark money has become problematic in our elections and could put our elections at risk to be influenced by outsiders. I do feel that soliciting funds during a legislative session should be prohibited, as it can make the legislator beholden to the dictates of whomever is giving money to them while they are in the capacity of making laws that will affect all of us. Mahalo.
