

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS31099 / HR006

The United States faces an unprecedented crisis at its southern border, as hundreds of thousands of illegals stream across, ignoring traditional immigration procedures and overwhelming border patrol agents and local communities. The Federal Government has failed in its duty of securing the border and protecting us in what amounts to an invasion, and in response the state of Texas has acted, invoking its constitutional right to self-defense. This resolution voices the consent of the House in recognizing the state of Texas' right to self-defense, and condemns the current administration's failure to protect its citizens.

FISCAL NOTE

This resolution has no fiscal impact on the state's budget.
