SECTION 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. It is the intent of the Legislature to allow a victim of domestic violence to retain the use of an existing wireless telephone number and access to the contacts and other information that may be contained in an existing wireless telephone. For many victims of domestic violence, a wireless telephone is a lifeline to the community resources, the life-saving services and the support networks victims need in order to leave a batterer and an abusive environment. Many victims require access to a wireless telephone to obtain counseling services and legal assistance, such as securing a protection order. For these victims, a wireless telephone serves as a critical tool for making appointments and communicating with advocates. This can be a problem if the domestic violence victim is not the account holder for the wireless telephone, as only an account holder has the authority to release the telephone number or numbers contained in the account.

SECTION 2. That Chapter 63, Title 39, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended by the addition thereto of a $\underbrace{\text{NEW SECTION}}_{\text{to be known and designated as Section 39-6318, Idaho Code, and to read as follows:}$
