Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill provides that for counties other than Marion County, contracts entered into by the county (including contracts executed by county elected officers) must meet certain requirements. It requires certain contracts of county elected officers to be reviewed by the county attorney and county executive. It provides that a contract of a county elected officer may be disapproved in the review by the county attorney, if the contract does not comply with state law or the public purchasing or bidding laws. It also allows the county executive to void a contract if a county officer fails to comply with the review process.

Effective Date: July 1, 2024.

Explanation of Local Expenditures: (Revised) The bill would increase workload for county officers to authorize a contract for the county. Marion County, a bond to finance the construction of a public facility, and a bond or other type of security for the payment of a lease obligation are exempt from the bill's provisions. The bill's requirements are within the county's routine administrative functions and should be able to be implemented with no additional appropriations, assuming near customary county staffing and resource levels.
