Summary of Legislation: This bill requires an association to offer a cash payment option at athletic events beginning July 1, 2024.

Effective Date: July 1, 2024.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Beginning in FY 2025, provisions in this bill will require public schools to offer cash payment options during athletic events in which an admission fee is charged. This may represent a minor workload increase for public schools to update their point of sale systems if they do not currently accept cash payment, and to the extent cash registers need to be purchased, school expenditures could increase.
