The judge shall issue such an order upon a showing of 25 probable cause to believe that: 26 (1) a violation of IC 35-45-6-2, in the case of property described 27 in section 2(a) of this chapter; or 28 (2) conduct described in section 2(b) of this chapter, in case of 29 property described in section 2(b) of this chapter; 30 has occurred. 31 SECTION 19. Seizure may 34 be made without a court order only if: 35 (1) the seizure is incident to a lawful arrest or search, or to an 36 inspection under an administrative inspection warrant; or 37 (2) the property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior 38 judgment in favor of the state in a forfeiture proceeding under this 39 chapter (or IC 34-4-30.5 before its repeal). 40 (b) When property is seized under subsection (a), pending forfeiture 41 and final disposition, the law enforcement officer making the seizure 42 may:

1 (1) place the property under seal; 2 (2) remove the property to a place designated by the court; or 3 (3) require another agency authorized by law to take custody of 4 the property and remove it to an appropriate location. 5 (c) Property seized under subsection (a) (or IC 34-4-30.5-4(a) before 6 its repeal) is not subject to replevin, but is considered to be in the 7 custody of the law enforcement officer making the seizure, subject only 8 to order of the court. However, if a seizure of property is made in 9 accordance with subsection (a), the prosecuting attorney or the 10 inspector general shall bring an action for forfeiture under section 2 of 11 this chapter within: 12 (1) thirty (30) days after receiving notice from any person 13 claiming a right, title, or interest in the property; or 14 (2) one hundred eighty (180) days after the property is seized; 15 whichever occurs first. 16 (d) If an action under subsection (e) is not filed within thirty (30) 17 days after receiving notice from any person claiming a right, title, or 18 interest in the property, the elaimant: 19 (1) is entitled to file a complaint seeking: 20(A) replevin; 21 (B) foreclosure; or 22 (C) other appropriate remedy; and 23 (2) shall immediately obtain a hearing on the complaint as 24 provided in subsection (f). 25 If an action is not filed within one hundred eighty (180) days after the 26 date of the seizure, and the property has not been previously released 27 to an innocent person under section 5 of this chapter (or 28 IC 34-4-30.5-4.5 before its repeal), the law enforcement agency whose 29 officer made the seizure shall return the property to its owner. 30 (e) If property is seized under subsection (a) (or IC 34-4-30.5-4(a) 31 before its repeal) and the property is a vehicle or real property, the 32 prosecuting attorney or the inspector general shall serve, within thirty 33 (30) days after the date the property is seized and as provided by the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, notice of seizure upon each person 34 35 whose right, title, or interest is of record in the bureau of motor 36 vehicles, in the county recorder's office, or other office authorized to 37 receive or record vehicle or real property ownership interests. 38 (f) The person whose right, title, or interest is of record may at any 39 time file a complaint seeking: 40 (1) replevin; 41 (2) forcelosure; or 42 (3) another appropriate remedy;

2017

1 to which the state may answer in forfeiture within the appropriate 2 statutory period. The court shall promptly set the matter for a hearing, 3 and in the case of replevin or foreclosure, the court shall set the hearing 4 as provided by the applicable statutory provisions. 5 SECTION 20. IC 34-24-2-5 IS REPEALED [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 6 2017]. Sec. 5. (a) If a person holding a valid lien, mortgage, security 7 interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract did not know the 8 property was the object of corrupt business influence or conduct 9 described in section 2(b) of this chapter, the court shall determine 10 whether the secured interest is equal to or in excess of the appraised 11 value of the property. 12 (b) Appraised value is to be determined as of the date of judgment 13 on a wholesale basis by: 14 (1) agreement between the secured party and the prosecuting 15 attorney; or 16 (2) the inheritance tax appraiser for the county in which the action 17 is brought. 18 (c) If the amount due to the secured party is equal to or greater than 19 the appraised value of the property, the court shall order the property 20 released to the secured party. 21 (d) If the amount due the secured party is less than the appraised 22 value of the property, the holder of the interest may pay into the court 23 an amount equal to the owner's equity, which shall be the difference 24 between the appraised value and the amount of the lien, mortgage, 25 security interest, or interest under a conditional sales contract. Upon 26 payment, the state or unit, or both, shall relinquish all claims to the 27 property. 28 SECTION 21. IC 34-24-2-6, AS AMENDED BY P.L.222-2005, 29 SECTION 44, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE 30 JULY 1, 2017]: Sec. 6. (a) An aggrieved person may in addition to 31 proceeding under section 4 of this chapter, bring an action for 32 injunctive relief from corrupt business influence in a circuit or superior 33 court in the county of the aggrieved person's residence, or in a county 34 where any of the affected property or the affected enterprise is located. 35 If the court finds, through a preponderance of the evidence, that the 36 aggrieved person is suffering from corrupt business influence, the court 37 shall make an appropriate order for injunctive relief. This order must 38 be made in accordance with the principles that govern the granting of 39 injunctive relief from threatened loss or damage in other civil cases, 40 except that a showing of special or irreparable damage to the aggrieved 41 person is not required. The court may order injunctive relief only after 42 the execution of a bond by the aggrieved person for an injunction

1 improvidently granted, in an amount established by the court. In 2 addition, the court may order a temporary restraining order or a 3 preliminary injunction, but only after a showing of immediate danger 4 of significant loss or damage to the aggrieved person. 5 (b) An aggrieved person may bring an action against a person who 6 has violated IC 35-45-6-2 in a circuit or superior court in the county of 7 the aggrieved person's residence, or in a county where any of the 8 affected property or the affected enterprise is located, for damages 9 suffered as a result of corrupt business influence. Upon a showing by 10 a preponderance of the evidence that the aggrieved person has been 11 damaged by corrupt business influence, the court shall order the person causing the damage through a violation of IC 35-45-6-2 to pay to the 12 13 aggrieved person: 14 (1) an amount equal to three (3) times the person's actual 15 damages; 16 (2) the costs of the action; 17 (3) a reasonable attorney's fee; and 18 (4) any punitive damages awarded by the court and allowable 19 under law. 20 (c) The defendant and the aggrieved person are entitled to a trial by jury in an action brought under this section (or IC 34-4-30.5-5 before 21 22 its repeal). 23 (d) In addition to any rights provided under section 4 of this chapter, 24 An aggrieved person has a right or claim to forfeited property or to the 25 proceeds derived from forfeited property superior to any right or claim the state has in the same property or proceeds. 26 27 (e) If the state is an aggrieved person, the attorney general and the 28 inspector general have concurrent jurisdiction with the prosecuting 29 attorney to bring an action under this section. SECTION 22. IC 34-24-2-8 IS REPEALED [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 30 31 2017]. Sec. 8. (a) A prosecuting attorney or the inspector general may 32 retain an attorney to bring an action under this chapter. 33 (b) An attorney retained under this section is not required to be a 34 deputy prosecuting attorney but must be admitted to the practice of law 35 in Indiana. 36 SECTION 23. IC 35-33-5-5, AS AMENDED BY P.L.1-2007, 37 SECTION 225, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS 38 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2017]: Sec. 5. 42 in this section and IC 35-53.

1 (b) Evidence that consists of property obtained unlawfully from its 2 owner may be returned by the law enforcement agency to the owner 3 before trial, in accordance with IC 35-43-4-4(h). 4 (c) Except as provided in subsection (j), following the final 5 disposition of the cause at trial level or any other final disposition the 6 following shall be done: 7 (1) Property which may be lawfully possessed shall be returned 8 to its rightful owner, if known. If ownership is unknown, a 9 reasonable attempt shall be made by the law enforcement agency 10 holding the property to ascertain ownership of the property. After ninety (90) days from the time: 11 12 (A) the rightful owner has been notified to take possession of 13 the property; or 14 (B) a reasonable effort has been made to ascertain ownership 15 of the property; 16 the law enforcement agency holding the property shall, at a 17 convenient time, dispose of this property at a public auction. The 18 proceeds of this property shall be paid into the county general 19 fund. 20 (2) Except as provided in subsection (e), property, the possession 21 of which is unlawful, shall be destroyed by the law enforcement 22 agency holding it sixty (60) days after final disposition of the 23 cause. 24 (3) A firearm that has been seized from a person who is 25 dangerous (as defined in IC 35-47-14-1) shall be retained, 26 returned, or disposed of in accordance with IC 35-47-14. 27 (d) If any property described in subsection (c) was admitted into 28 evidence in the cause, the property shall be disposed of in accordance 29 with IC 35-53 or an order of the court trying the cause. 1 drug manufacturing site that accurately depict the presence and 2 quantity of chemicals, controlled substances, and chemically 3 contaminated equipment. 4 (3) The law enforcement agency completes a chemical inventory 5 report that describes the type and quantities of chemicals, 6 controlled substances, and chemically contaminated equipment 7 present at the illegal manufacturing site. 8 The photographs and description of the property shall be admissible 9 into evidence in place of the actual physical evidence. 10 (f) For purposes of preserving the record of any conviction on 11 appeal, a photograph demonstrating the nature of the property, and an 12 adequate description of the property must be obtained before the 13 disposition of the property. In the event of a retrial, the photograph and 14 description of the property shall be admissible into evidence in place 15 of the actual physical evidence. All other rules of law governing the admissibility of evidence shall apply to the photographs. 16 17 (g) The law enforcement agency disposing of property in any manner provided in subsection (b), (c), or (e) shall maintain certified 18 19 records of any disposition under subsection (b), (c), or (e). Disposition 20 by destruction of property shall be witnessed by two (2) persons who shall also attest to the destruction. 21 22 (h) This section does not affect the procedure for the disposition of 23 firearms seized by a law enforcement agency. 24 (i) A law enforcement agency that disposes of property by auction 25 under this section shall permanently stamp or otherwise permanently identify the property as property sold by the law enforcement agency. 26 27 (i) Upon motion of the prosecuting attorney, the court shall order 28 property seized under IC 34-24-1 transferred, subject to the perfected 29 liens or other security interests of any person in the property, to the 30 appropriate federal authority for disposition under 18 U.S.C. 981(e), 19 31 U.S.C. 1616a, or 21 U.S.C. 881(e) and any related regulations adopted 32 by the United States Department of Justice. 1	Sec. 3. (a) If the jury (if the hearing is by jury) or the court (if
2 3	the hearing is to the court alone) finds that the state has proved by
3 4	clear and convincing evidence that the property is:
4 5	(1) an instrumentality of; or (2) desired forms
	(2) derived from;
6 7	an offense alleged in the charging instrument, the court shall enter
8	a preliminary order of forfeiture. Except as provided in subsection
o 9	(b), a preliminary order of forfeiture becomes final one hundred
9 10	eighty (180) days from the date of entry.
10	(b) A preliminary order of forfeiture does not become final
11	under subsection (a) if the:
12	(1) court finds that the forfeiture is excessive or
13 14	disproportionate under section 4 of this chapter;
14 15	(2) prosecuting attorney remits or mitigates the forfeiture
	under section 4 of this chapter; or
16	(3) court finds that an innocent third party has an interest in
17	the property.
18	If the court makes a finding under subdivision (1) or (3), or the
19	prosecuting attorney remits or mitigates the forfeiture under
20	subdivision (2), the court shall enter a final order consistent with
21	the finding, remission, or mitigation not later than one hundred
22	eighty (180) days from the entry of the preliminary order of
23	forfeiture, unless, for good cause shown, the court extends the time
24	for entry of the final order.
25	Sec. 4. (a) This section applies only to the forfeiture of an
26	instrumentality. Not later than thirty (30) days after entry of a
27	preliminary order of forfeiture with respect to an instrumentality,
28	the defendant may petition the court to determine whether the
29	forfeiture is unconstitutionally excessive or disproportionate. The
30	defendant bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of the
31	evidence that the forfeiture is unconstitutionally excessive or
32	disproportionate.
33	(b) In determining whether the forfeiture is unconstitutionally
34	excessive or disproportionate, the court shall consider the
35	following:
36	(1) The seriousness of the offense and its impact on the
37	community, including the duration of the criminal activity and the barm agues by the defendent
38 39	and the harm caused by the defendant.
39 40	(2) The extent to which the defendant whose property is subject to forfaiture participated in the offense
40 41	subject to forfeiture participated in the offense.
41 42	(3) The extent to which the property was used in committing the offense.
42	the offense.

1	(4) The sentence imposed for committing the offense subject
2	to forfeiture.
3	(5) Whether the offense was completed or attempted.
4	(6) Any other relevant factor.
5	(c) In determining the value of the instrumentality subject to
6	forfeiture, the court shall consider the following:
7	(1) The fair market value of the property.
8	(2) The value of the property to the defendant whose property
9	is subject to forfeiture, including any hardship to the owner
10	if the forfeiture is realized.
11	(3) The hardship from the loss of a motor vehicle or other
12	property to family members or others if the property is
13	forfeited.
14	(4) Any other relevant factor.
15	(d) The court may not consider the value of the instrumentality
16	to the state in determining whether the forfeiture is
17	unconstitutionally excessive.
18	(e) Prior to the entry of a court's final order of forfeiture, the
19	prosecuting attorney may remit or mitigate the forfeiture upon
20	terms and conditions the prosecuting attorney finds reasonable if
21	the prosecuting attorney finds that:
22	(1) the petitioner did not intend to violate the law; or
23	(2) extenuating circumstances justify the remission or
24	mitigation of the forfeiture.
25	Chapter 5. Seizure
26	Sec. 1. At the request of the state, a court may issue an ex parte
27	preliminary order to seize or secure property for which forfeiture
28	is sought.
29	Sec. 2. Property subject to forfeiture may be seized without a
30	court order if:
31	(1) the seizure is incident to a lawful arrest or a lawful search;
32	(2) the property subject to seizure is the subject of a prior
33	judgment in favor of the state; or
34	(3) the state has probable cause to believe that:
35	(A) the delay caused by obtaining a court order would
36	result in the removal or destruction of the property; and
37	(B) the property is subject to forfeiture.
38	Sec. 3. When property is seized, the law enforcement officer or
39	other person seizing the property shall:
40	(1) give an itemized receipt to the person in possession of the
41	property; or
42	(2) if no person is in possession of the property, leave an

1	itemized receipt in the place where the property was found, if
2	reasonably practicable.
3	Sec. 4. The law enforcement agency or other entity having
4	custody of seized property shall use reasonable diligence to secure
5	the property and prevent damage or waste.
6	Sec. 5. The state obtains provisional title to seized property:
7	(1) at the time a court issues an order for seizure; or
8	(2) if a court has not issued an order for seizure, at the time
9	the property is seized.
10	Provisional title authorizes the law enforcement agency or entity
11	having custody of the property to hold and protect the property.
12	Sec. 6. A law enforcement agency or other entity having custody
13	of seized property shall maintain the following records with respect
14	to seized property:
15	(1) The exact kind, quantity, and form of the property.
16	(2) The date it received the property.
17	(3) The person from whom it received the property.
18	(4) The violation of law or other legal justification that
19	subjects the property to seizure.
20	(5) The existence of any liens against the seized property.
21	(6) The make, model, and serial number of each seized
22	firearm.
23	(7) To whom and when the notice of forfeiture was given, or
24	the manner in which notice was given if notice was not given
25	to a person.
26	(8) To whom it delivered the property.
27	(9) The date and manner of destruction or disposition of the
28	property.
29	(10) Any other records required to be maintained by any
30	other law.
31	Sec. 7. (a) This section does not apply to property reasonably
32	held for investigatory purposes.
33	(b) If the owner of property that has been seized seeks
34	possession of the property before the criminal trial, the owner may
35	post bond or give substitute property in an amount equal to the fair
36	market value of the seized property at the time the bond amount is
37	determined.
38	(c) Not later than three (3) days after the owner of seized
39	property posts a bond or gives substitute property under
40	subsection (b), the law enforcement agency or other entity having
41	custody of the seized property shall return the seized property to
42	the owner. A forfeiture action may proceed against the bond or

	25
1	substitute property as if it were the seized property.
2	Chapter 6. Pretrial Hearing for Return of Seized Property
3	Sec. 1. Following the seizure of property under IC 35-53-5, a
4	claimant has a right to a pretrial hearing to determine the validity
5	of the seizure.
6	Sec. 2. A claimant may challenge the validity of a seizure by
7	filing a verified petition for return of seized property with the
8	court having jurisdiction over the case not later than sixty (60)
9	days before trial. The claimant shall serve a copy of the verified
10	petition for return of seized property on the prosecuting attorney
11	at the time the claimant files the petition with the court.
12	Sec. 3. The claimant shall briefly describe in the petition filed
13	under section 2 of this chapter why the claimant is entitled to
14	return of the seized property.
15	Sec. 4. The court shall schedule a hearing on the petition:
16	(1) at least ten (10) days; and
17	(2) not later than thirty (30) days;
18	after the petition is filed. The prosecuting attorney shall file its
