

1 AN ACT relating to jail standards.

2 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

3 ➔Section 1. KRS 441.055 is amended to read as follows:

4 (1) The Department of Corrections shall for those counties which elect to house state 5 prisoners in their jail:

6 (a) 1. Adopt the recommendations of the Jail Standards Commission created
7 pursuant to Executive Order Number 81-1026 and promulgate
8 regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A establishing minimum
9 standards for jails. These standards shall include but not be limited to 10 rules governing the following areas:

- 11 a. Health and safety conditions;
- 12 b. Fire safety;
- 13 c. Jail operations, recordkeeping, and administration;
- 14 d. Curriculum of basic and continuing annual training for jailers and 15 jail personnel;
- 16 e. Custody, care, and treatment of prisoners;
- 17 f. Medical care; and
- 18 g. Jail equipment, renovation, and construction.

19 2. These minimum standards shall specifically allow for:

20 a. ~~i.~~ ~~[a.]~~ Provision of required documents to prisoners through 21 electronic format;

22 ii. ~~[b.]~~ Confidential prisoner access to attorneys through 23 unmonitored phone lines in non-contact visitation areas;

24 iii. ~~[c.]~~ Measures to prevent receipt of prisoner mail containing 25 intoxicants, including in fabricated legal mail; and

26 iv. ~~[d.]~~ Delivery of mail received from the court, an attorney of 27 record, or a public official to the prisoner via an electronic

1 copy provided on a secure, personal account after opened
2 and inspected in the presence of the prisoner; and

3 b. The appointment or employment of persons who have attained
4 the age of eighteen (18) years or older who are otherwise
5 qualified to serve in the position in which they are appointed or 6 employed to work inside the secure perimeter of the jail;
7 however, no person under the age of twenty one (21) years shall 8 be employed as a deputy jailer, possess or exercise peace officer
9 powers, or function in a role similar to that of a deputy jailer,
10 nor shall an individual under the age of twenty one (21) years be 11 employed in a position that involves supervision over inmates or 12 persons yet to be booked into the jail. Persons who are under the 13 age of twenty-one (21) years shall have a high school diploma or 14 a High School Equivalency Diploma;

15 (b) Develop a jail standards review process, which shall include the participation 16 of persons knowledgeable of jail operations to review and amend the 17 standards as necessary. The jail standards shall be reviewed no later than 18 December 31, 1992, and at least every two (2) years thereafter. Fifty percent 19 (50%) of the participants in the review process shall be appointed from 20 persons representing county interests and fifty percent (50%) shall be 21 appointed from persons representing state interests; and

22 (c) Provide technical assistance and consultation to local governments in order to 23 facilitate compliance with standards.

24 (2) The department shall, for those counties that elect not to hold state prisoners in their 25 jails, adopt the recommendations of the Jail Standards Commission and promulgate
26 administrative regulations pursuant to KRS Chapter 13A to establish minimum
27 standards for those jails. These standards shall be limited to health and life safety

1 and shall permit persons who have attained the age of eighteen (18) years or 2 older who are otherwise qualified to serve in the position in which they are 3 appointed or employed to work inside the secure perimeter of the jail; however, 4 no person under the age of twenty one (21) years shall be employed as a deputy 5 jailer, possess or exercise peace officer powers, or function in a role equal to that 6 of a deputy jailer, nor shall an individual under the age of twenty one (21) years 7 be employed in a position that involves supervision over inmates or persons yet to 8 be booked into the jail. Persons who are under the age of twenty-one (21) years
9 shall have a high school diploma or a High School Equivalency Diploma.

10 (3) All minimum standards promulgated by the department applying to jails shall 11 include requirements for adequate nutrition for pregnant prisoners, an adequate 12 number of hygiene products for female prisoners, and an appropriate number of 13 undergarments for female prisoners.

14 (4) The department may establish classifications of jails based on the maximum 15 permissible period of incarceration or other criteria and promulgate standards for 16 each class of jail.
