15 or misrepresentation as represented by the application for the certificate, or as 16 a result of the student being unable to complete the course or courses because 17 the school ceased operations. Such indemnification shall, in no case, exceed 18 the advanced tuition paid or to be paid by said student or students or any such 19 parent or guardian and regardless of the number of years that a school's bond

23 proprietary school. The commission shall consider complaints in a timely 24 manner after ten (10) days' written notice by certified mail, return receipt 25 requested, to such school of said complaint giving time and place of hearing 26 thereon and, if such claim is found to be correct and due to the claimant and if

21 shall be certified as true and correct in content and policy by the chief executive 22 officer of said proprietary school.

23 (8) A certificate shall be valid for a period of one (1) school year. A certificate may be 24 renewed in the same manner and under the conditions prescribed by the 25 commission.

26 (9) Certificates are transferable to another owner. If a change of ownership occurs, the 27 new owner shall within ten (10) days, reexecute and affirm the application for

2 governing said certificate in effect at the time of sale. The commission may 3 establish a reasonable fee for the recording and processing of such changes.

5 sole discretion of the commission upon a showing by the proprietary school that 6 they are excessive in the case of any particular proprietary school.

13 (c) Contracts by and between a proprietary school operating or doing business 14 within this state which are entered into prior to the issuance of a certificate by 15 the commission, shall be voidable at the option of the student notwithstanding 16 any subsequent issuance of a certificate to the school by the commission.

17 (d) Restitution of any money paid by a student under a contract voided pursuant 18 to this section, may be obtained through action brought by the student in either 19 District Court or Circuit Court in the county of the student's residence or other 20 appropriate court, at the option of the student.

21 ➔Section 3. Whereas properly conditioned surety bonds are necessary in order to 22 provide immediate assistance to the Kentucky Commission on Proprietary Education to 23 better carry out its duties, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect
24 upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law.
