27			and full and equal enjoyment of its goods, services, facilities, privileges,

1advantages, or accommodations to any person because of race, color, religion,2national origin, or sex, except nothing shall be construed to deny a deduction3for amounts paid to any religious or denominational club, group, or4establishment or any organization operated solely for charitable or educational5purposes which restricts membership to persons of the same religion or6denomination in order to promote the religious principles for which it is7established and maintained; and

8 (j) A taxpayer may elect to claim the standard deduction allowed by KRS
9 141.081 instead of itemized deductions allowed pursuant to 26 U.S.C. sec. 63
10 and as modified by this section.

Section 2. The provisions of Section 1 of this Act shall apply retroactively for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2018. The Department of Revenue shall automatically issue refunds of excess income tax paid for any individual who files an individual income tax return before Section 1 of this Act is integrated into the tax return form.

Section 3. Whereas relief from excessive taxation of pension income is vital to many citizens of the Commonwealth, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law.
