6 holds such an interest.

7 ➔SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 251 IS CREATED TO
8 READ AS FOLLOWS:

9 (1) When a depositor stores grain with a grain warehouse operator and has written 10 evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation, the producer or other 11 depositor has a first priority lien on the grain, the proceeds from the grain, or on 12 grain owned by the grain warehouse operator. The lien terminates when the 13 storage liability of the grain warehouse operator to the depositor terminates.

14 (2) The lien created under this section shall be preferred to any lien or security 15 interest of any creditor to the grain warehouse operator, regardless of whether 16 the creditor's lien or security interest was attached to the grain or proceeds before
17 or after the date on which the producer or other depositor's lien was attached.

18 (3) A depositor who claims a lien under this section need not file any notice of the 19 lien in order to perfect the lien.

20 (4) The lien created under this section is discharged, except as to the proceeds
21 therefrom and except as to grain owned by the grain warehouse operator, upon 22 sale of the grain by the warehouse operator to a buyer in the ordinary course of 23 business.

25 READ AS FOLLOWS:

26 (1) When the board determines there has been a failure involving a licensed grain
27 dealer or licensed grain warehouse operator, the board shall have the authority

1 to:

2 (a) Take receivership of any grain on the licensee's premises to ensure that it is
3 not destroyed, lost, stolen, or otherwise disposed of;

4 (b) Sell the grain and place the proceeds in escrow for the benefit of the 5 owners, or for the benefits of claimants, when the identities of those persons
6 have been identified;

7 (c) Establish a priority lien on any grain or other assets that remain in the 8 licensee's possession, custody, or control;

9 (d) Secure and take possession of any grains or other commodities in the 10 possession, custody, or control of the failed grain dealer or grain warehouse
11 operator for the purpose of using it to cover outstanding storage obligations.
12 If there is insufficient grain to cover outstanding shortage obligations, the 13 board shall determine each depositor's pro rata share of the value of the 14 remaining grain. Any remaining deficiency shall be considered a claim of 15 the producer or depositor against the fund, if applicable. Each grade of 16 grain shall be treated separately for the purpose of covering outstanding 17 storage obligations and calculating claims against the fund;

18 (e) Commence action upon the surety bond, certificate of deposit, letter of 19 credit, or temporary surety as required by Section 9 of this Act. The board
20 may commence action against both the licensee and the surety or other 21 financial institution in the Franklin Circuit Court or a Circuit Court in the 22 county where the grain is located;

23 (f) Deposit into the fund any remaining assets of the failed grain dealer or 24 grain warehouse operator for the purpose of using those assets to pay
25 claimants;

26 (g) Establish a period of time, not less than thirty (30) days and not greater 27 than one (1) year, for potential claimants to file their claims with supporting

- 1 documentation;
- 2 (h) Make a public announcement of the procedure and deadline for potential
- 3 claimants to file their claims;
- 4 (i) Examine timely filed claims and make such investigation as may be
- 5 necessary for the board to determine whether a claim is a valid claim;
- 6 (j) Determine which of the claims that were submitted in advance of the
- 7 deadline are valid claims;
- 8 (k) Assign to each valid claim an initial value computed as a percentage of the
- 9 value of the grain on the date when it was delivered by the claimant to the
- 10 licensee, relying on the value established for that grain by the Chicago
- 11 Board of Trade on the date of delivery. If there is no price information from
- 12 the Chicago Board of Trade for that grain on that date, then the board shall
- 13 rely on price information from another exchange in the United States or
- 14 Canada. If there is no price information from any exchange in the United
- 15 States or Canada for that grain on that date, the board shall determine an
- 16 alternative method for determining a value for that grain on that date;
- 17 (l) Compute claim values by applying these percentages to each valid claim's
- 18 initial value:
- 19 1. One hundred percent (100%), for valid claims that are evidenced by a
- 20 grain warehouse receipt issued by a federally licensed warehouse; or
- 21 2. A minimum of ninety percent (90%), for all other valid claims; and
- 22 (m) Notify each claimant in writing of the board's determination as to:
- 23 1. The validity of the claim;
- 24 2. The value of the grain claimed by the claimant;
- 25 3. The amount and percent of value that will be reimbursed by the fund;
- 26 and
- 27 4. The claimant's right to request a hearing on his or her claim within

- 1 thirty (30) days of the claimant's receipt of the written notification.
- 2 (2) The board shall not approve for payment from the fund any claims with respect to 3 grains that are not fund-covered grains.
- 4 (3) The board shall not compute a claim's value in reliance on the price or other 5 terms of agreement between a claimant and a licensee.
- 6 (4) If a producer or other depositor fails to file a claim within the time announced by 7 the board, then the board and the fund shall not be liable to that depositor.
- 8 (5) If the board fails to commence action against the surety bond, certificate of 9 deposit, letter of credit, or temporary surety that Section 9 of this Act required the 10 licensee to obtain within thirty (30) days of a depositor making a written demand
11 that the board commence action, then the depositor shall have a right of action
12 against the licensee to recover damages suffered by reason of the licensee's
13 failure. The depositor shall give the board immediate written notice of the 14 commencement of such action.
- 15 (6) The board shall deny payment from the fund to a claimant when the board 16 determines that the claimant:
- 17 (a) Elected to opt out of coverage, as permitted by Section 14 of this Act; or 18 (b) Engaged in conduct or practices which substantially contributed to the 19 claimant's financial loss.
- 20 (7) A claimant who accepts payment from the fund shall be deemed to have assigned 21 to the board all of the claimant's rights, title, and interest in the grain and in any 22 judgment with respect to the grain. The board shall have the authority to initiate 23 or maintain any civil action it deems necessary to compel a licensee or a former 24 licensee to repay to the fund any sums disbursed therefrom in relation to a claim.

1 action against the person or corporation that committed the violation to recover
