

1           A RESOLUTION adjourning the Senate in honor and loving memory of Lieutenant
2 General Harold "Hal" Gregory Moore Jr.

3           WHEREAS, Hal Moore was born in Bardstown on February 13, 1922, the 4 cherished son of the late Harold and Mary Moore; and

5           WHEREAS, Hal Moore began his 32-year military career upon entry into the 6 United States Military Academy in 1942. Upon graduation in 1945, he served in Japan
7 before returning to Fort Bragg, where he met the love of his life, Julie Compton; and

8           WHEREAS, Hal Moore deployed to the Korean War in 1952, commanding an 9 infantry rifle and heavy mortar company in the 7th Infantry Division and earning two 10 Bronze Star Medals for Valor; and

11           WHEREAS, Hal Moore went on to teach military tactics at West Point, developed 12 airborne and air assault equipment at the Pentagon, and completed a course of study at the 13 Naval War College that allowed him to take command of the 2nd Battalion, 23rd Infantry
14 at Ford Benning, Georgia. Fourteen months later he was deployed to Vietnam with the 1st 15 Cavalry Unit; and

16           WHEREAS, it was in Vietnam that Hal Moore became one of the most celebrated 17 military heroes in that conflict. His leadership in the first major battle between the United 18 States and the People's Army of Vietnam occurred in 1965. After a three-day operation 19 that saw mass casualties, the enemy quit the field and left more than six hundred of their 20 dead behind. For his extraordinary leadership and courage, Hal Moore was awarded the 21 Distinguished Service Cross, the nation's second-highest award for valor; and

22           WHEREAS, Hal Moore was deeply involved in the United States' withdrawal from 23 Vietnam, and then returned to Korea in 1969 and was promoted to Major General. In 24 1974, he was promoted to Lieutenant General and was assigned to the Pentagon as the 25 Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel for the United States Army; and

26           WHEREAS, after his retirement, Hal Moore would document his life in the New 27 York Times bestselling book We Were Soldiers Once...and Young. In 2002, Randall

1 Wallace directed the film version of the book with Mel Gibson playing Lieutenant 2 General Moore; and

3 WHEREAS, Lieutenant General Harold "Hal" Gregory Moore Jr., husband, father, 4 grandfather, brother, and American hero, departed this earthly life on February 10, 2017, 5 leaving his family, friends, and all those whose lives he touched in solemn mourning; and

6 WHEREAS, Hal Moore was preceded in death by his wife, Julie Compton, and 7 brother, William Moore. He is survived by his children, Harold Gregory III and his wife,
8 Evelyn, Stephen and his wife, Donna, Julie Moore Orlowski and her husband, Leo, Cecile
9 Moore Rainey and her husband, Terry, and David and his wife, Teresa; sister, Betty Karp; 10 brother, Ballard Moore; twelve grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and a host of 11 other family members, friends, and loved ones who will dearly miss his presence in their 12 lives;

13 NOW, THEREFORE,

14 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of 15 Kentucky:

16 ➔Section 1. The members of the Senate hereby express their most profound 17 sympathy upon the passing of Lieutenant General Harold "Hal" Gregory Moore Jr., and 18 posthumously thank him for his extraordinary service to this great nation.

19 ➔Section 2. When the Senate adjourns this day, it does so in honor and loving 20 memory of Lieutenant General Harold "Hal" Gregory Moore Jr.

21 ➔Section 3. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this 22 Resolution to Julie Moore Orlowski, 426 Valley Airport Drive, Cotter, Arkansas 72626.
