

1 A RESOLUTION honoring the Henderson County High School academic team
2 upon winning the 2017 Governor's Cup state championship.

3 WHEREAS, at the recent Governor's Cup State Finals at the historic Galt House in 4 Louisville, Kentucky, the Henderson County High School academic team won its first-5 ever academic state championship; and

6 WHEREAS, after placing second to Campbell County in the Quick Recall
7 championship match, Henderson County High took home a number of strong individual 8 performances—including Isaac Oettle's top finish in Social Studies, D.J. Bank's third-9 place finish in Social Studies, Will Hardy's third-place finish in Arts and Humanities, 10 Andrew Saul's third-place finish in Composition, Harrison Jenkin's fourth-place finish in 11 Language Arts, Isaac Oettle's eighth-place finish in Language Arts, Austin Meredith's 12 fifth-place finish in Mathematics, and Zachary Beickman's ninth-place finish in 13 Mathematics—to take the title; and

14 WHEREAS, the Henderson County High School academic team is ably directed by 15 Head Coach Brian Sullivan, Assistant Coach Matthew Richeson, and Assistant Coach 16 Sarah Hardy, and Assistant Coach Ed Clouse. The team consists of Isaac Oettle, Will 17 Hardy, Austin Meredith, Cole Privette, Zachary Beickman, D.J. Banks, Riley Lovell, 18 Harrison Jenkins, Alex Chandler, and Andrew Sauls; and

19 WHEREAS, winning a state championship, particularly in an event that showcases 20 the academic excellence of this Commonwealth's students, is an extraordinary 21 accomplishment; and

22 WHEREAS, in this spirit, this honorable body congratulates the Henderson County 23 academic team upon winning the Governor's Cup state championship, acknowledges the 24 hard work of Coach Brian Sullivan and his staff, and commends the families of these 25 exemplary student-competitors for all they have done to help prepare them for this event;

26 NOW, THEREFORE,

27 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of
