

1 A RESOLUTION honoring Makayla Epps.

2 WHEREAS, Makayla Epps, a proud graduate of Marion County High School and 3 the 2013 recipient of Kentucky's Ms. Basketball award, will finish her extraordinary
4 career at the University of Kentucky on February 23, 2017, against the Mississippi State
5 Bulldogs; and

6 WHEREAS, in her junior season, Makayla Epps became the 31st player in 7 Kentucky women's history to reach the 1,000 points scored mark, and the third fastest 8 player under Coach Matthew Mitchell to achieve that feat; and

9 WHEREAS, a two-time choice for first-team all-SEC honors, Makayla Epps has 10 been chosen for the SEC Academic Honor Roll twice in her career and was selected by 11 the league's coaches to the SEC all-tournament team after the 2015 and 2016 events.
12 During her senior season, she is averaging more than 17 points and four rebounds per 13 game, while shooting 33 percent from three-point range and 75 percent from the foul line; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, Makayla Epps will end her career as a Wildcat as one of the most 16 skilled and balanced players of the Matthew Mitchell era. Known for her trademark 17 toughness and her exemplary basketball IQ, she has followed in the footsteps of her 18 father, Kentucky Wildcat great Anthony Epps, and will once again seek to lead the 19 University of Kentucky to an NCAA Tournament berth; and

20 WHEREAS, Makayla Epps, for all she has accomplished on and off the court at the 21 University of Kentucky; for her many accomplishments as a basketball player, a student, 22 and a human being of the first order; and for what she represents as one of the greatest 23 athletes to ever come out of Marion County, Kentucky, is rightfully honored by this body 24 on this day, and granted best wishes as she finishes her collegiate playing career;
