13 "§738.1. Emergency powers may not be extended to violate religious liberty 14 A.(1) The legislature finds and declares that the emergency powers in this 15 Chapter and the emergency powers in Chapter 9 of this Title were not intended to 16 violate the religious liberty guaranteed in Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution of 17 Louisiana and the First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of 18 America.

19 (2) The legislature further finds and declares that in 1993, when the 20 emergency powers were first enacted pursuant to this Chapter, the legislature stated 21 with specificity in R.S. 29:736(D) that the emergency powers were never 22 contemplated as powers which would be interpreted to diminish the rights
23 guaranteed to all persons under the Declaration of Rights of the Louisiana
24 Constitution or the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution. Those same 25 constitutional limitations were again reiterated by the legislature in R.S. 29:772 when 26 it enacted the public health emergency powers in 2003. Article I, Section 8 of the 27 Constitution of Louisiana is part of the Declaration of Rights and provides that no
28 law shall be enacted respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free 29 exercise thereof.

30 (3) The legislature further finds that in addition to providing for the spiritual 31 needs of individuals, churches and other religious organizations:

32 (a) Provide food, clothing, and household items to the poor and those in need 33 due to hurricanes and other emergency disaster events.

34 (b) Conduct or facilitate addiction recovery meetings which decrease the 35 number of suicides and drug overdoses in the community.

36 B. Nothing in this Chapter or in Chapter 9 of this Title shall authorize any 37 government official, government agency, or other entity to utilize any emergency 38 power to impose a criminal penalty including confining a person to the parish jail or

1 other correctional facility, imposing a fine, or imposing any other monetary penalty
2 under any of the following circumstances:

3 (1) Attending or conducting a church service or similar religious assembly.

4 (2) Providing or distributing food, clothing, or household items at a church 5 or other religious facility to the poor or hungry or delivering those items to the 6 needy.

7 (3) Conducting or attending an addiction recovery meeting at a church or 8 other religious facility.

9 C. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no natural or 10 juridical person shall be liable for any criminal penalty, fine, or other monetary 11 penalty and shall not be confined to the parish jail or other correctional facility for 12 conducting any activity as provided in Subsection B of this Section during a declared 13 state of emergency pursuant to this Chapter or Chapter 9 of this Title.

14 Section 2. The provisions of this Act are intended to clarify the provisions 15 of the emergency powers provided by the Louisiana Homeland Security and 16 Emergency Assistance and Disaster Act and the emergency powers provided by the 17 Louisiana Health Emergency Powers Act. The provisions of this Act are interpretive 18 as provided by Civil Code Article 6 and are therefore remedial in nature and shall 19 apply to all actions, charges, or claims pending on or filed after the effective date of 20 this Act."
