14 When a member is recognized to ask a question during debate, the member 15 shall be out of order if:

16 (1) The member utilizes the question to supply information to the House
17 rather than to obtain information, unless the information the member supplies to the 18 House can be authenticated and is necessary to make the question the member is 19 asking to obtain information intelligible.

20 (2) The member utilizes the question to inquire about a matter or conduct
21 which is not related to the debate on the question before the House."
