TAX/PROPERTY RR SEE FISC NOTE LF EX See Note Page 1 of 1
(Constitutional Amendment) Provides for the redemption period for blighted, abandoned, uninhabitable, or hazardous property sold at tax sale

Purpose of Bill: This measure shortens the redemption period for vacant residential or commercial property sold at a tax sale which is blighted or abandoned in any parish other than Orleans to 18 months. Currently, such properties have a redemption period of three years in parishes other than Orleans. The redemption period allows the previous owner to redeem the property after it is sold at a tax sale by paying the price given, plus costs, a 5% penalty, and interest at 1% until redemption.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The impact on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure is indeterminable.

According to officials with the cities of Lafayette and Shreveport, there may be a decrease in local fund expenditures in the future if more responsible property owners take full ownership of these properties within the shorter redemption period and maintain them without requiring the city to do so.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
