HB 358 Reengrossed

2015 Regular Session

Schroder

Abstract: Authorizes the state veterinarian to place any animal in quarantine until the necessary inspections, tests, or epidemiological investigations have been completed.

Present law authorizes the state veterinarian to place livestock in quarantine until the necessary inspections, tests, or epidemiological investigations have been completed. Proposed law expands the authority to quarantine in present law to any animal used for research, after consultation with cognizant federal officials and agencies, until the disease risk has abated.

(Amends R.S. 3:2094(intro. para.); Adds R.S. 3:2094(B))

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Agriculture, Forestry, Aquaculture, and Rural Development to the original bill:

1. Delete a provision that expanded the authority of the state veterinarian to quarantine all animals, instead of solely livestock.
2. Add a provision that allows the state veterinarian, after consultation with cognizant federal officials and agencies, to place any animal used for research in quarantine until the disease risk has abated.

The House Floor Amendments to the engrossed bill:

1. Make a technical change.
