HB 71 Original

2016 Regular Session

Cox

Abstract: Changes the allowable time period for extensions of a Medicaid fiscal intermediary contract from 12-month to 90-day increments, up to 360 days.

Present law authorizes the state to enter into contracts for Medicaid fiscal intermediary services.

Present law further provides that the term of a contract for fiscal intermediary services shall be 120 months. Further, the contract may be extended under certain circumstances for additional 12-month periods.

Proposed law changes the allowable time period for extensions from 12-month to 90-day increments, up to 360 days.
