Provides relative to hospital notaries.(8/1/14)

Present law provides that the director of a hospital services district may appoint not more than two employees of the hospital as ex officio notaries public. Present law provides that such ex officio notaries may exercise the functions of a notary public only to perform certain notary tasks and activities. Proposed law expands and amends language to make the capacity of hospital directors to appoint an ex officio notary public to include those hospital services districts not included in the referenced statute. Proposed law provides that ex officio notaries appointed under this statutory authority may only exercise notary tasks and activities limited to matters within the official business functions of the hospital.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law executes a technical amendment to include hospital services districts created under separate statutory references within those that allow the appointment of an ex officio notary public. Proposed law limits the activities of ex officio notaries public in hospital service districts to those involving only official business functions of the hospital.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
