

Proposed law removes the element of causing bodily harm to another person.

Proposed law adds the offense of depositing obscene matters in the mail to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds the offense of fraudulent use of credit cards, debit cards, and other access devices to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds the offense of using false pretenses to obtain services to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds the offense of receiving stolen property to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds offenses concerning Government computers to the LCMJ. These offense include any of the following:

- (1) Knowingly accessing a Government computer, with an unauthorized purpose, and by doing so obtaining classified information, with reason to believe such information could be used to the injury of the U. S., or to the advantage of any foreign nation, and intentionally communicating, delivering, transmitting, or causing to be communicated, delivered, or transmitted such information to any person not entitled to receive it.
- (2) Intentionally accessing a Government computer, with an unauthorized purpose, and thereby obtaining classified or other protected information from any such Government computer.
- (3) Knowingly causing the transmission of a program, information, code, or command, and as a result of such conduct, intentionally causing damage without authorization to a Government computer.

Proposed law adds the offense of making, drawing, or uttering a check, draft, or order without sufficient funds to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds the offense of subornation of perjury to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds the offense of obstructing justice to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds the offense of misprision of serious offense to the LCMJ, which includes any person subject to this code who knows that another person has committed a serious offense and wrongfully conceals the commission of the offense and fails to make the commission of the offense known to civilian or military authorities as soon as possible; shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Proposed law adds the offense of wrongful refusal to testify to the LCMJ.

Proposed law adds the offense of prevention of authorized seizure of property to the LCMJ which includes any person subject to this code who, knowing that one or more persons authorized to make searches and seizures are seizing, are about to seize, or are endeavoring to seize property, destroys, removes, or otherwise disposes of the property with intent to prevent the seizure thereof shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Proposed law adds the offense of retaliation to the LCMJ.

Effective August 1, 2022.

(Amends and redesignates R.S. 29:183, 198, 205, 215, 220, 220a, 223 and 232; adds R.S. 29:204a, 206a, 214, 217a, 221a, 221b, 222a, 223a, 224, 230, 231a, 231b, 231c, 231d, 231e, and 231f)