12 enacted to read as follows:

13 CHAPTER 1-C. SURROGACY CONTRACTS

14 PART I. DEFINITIONS

15 §2718. Definition of terms

16 As used in this Chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed
17 to them in this Section unless otherwise provided for or unless the context otherwise 18 indicates:

19 (1) "Compensation" means a payment of money, objects, services, or 20 anything else having monetary value. Compensation shall not include 21 reimbursement of actual expenses, as provided for in R.S. 9:2720.5(B)(3), to the 22 gestational mother or payment for goods or services incurred by the intended parents 23 as a result of the pregnancy and that would not have been incurred but for the 24 pregnancy.

25 (2) "Gamete" means either a sperm or an egg.

26 (3) "Genetic surrogacy" means the process by which a woman attempts to 27 carry and give birth to a child using her own gametes and either the gametes of a 28 person who intends to parent the child or donor gametes, when there is an agreement
29 to relinquish the custody of and all rights and obligations to the child.

1 (4) "Gestational surrogacy" means the process by which a woman attempts
2 to carry and give birth to a child born as a result of in utero transfer of a human 3 embryo who has no genetic contribution from the gestational mother.

4 (5) "Gestational mother" means a woman who agrees to engage in a
5 gestational surrogacy.

6 (6) "In utero embryo transfer" means the medical procedure whereby the 7 genetic mother's egg is fertilized with the sperm of the genetic father, with the 8 resulting embryo transferred into the uterus of the gestational mother.

9 (7) "Intended parents" means a man and a woman who are married to each
10 other in accordance with Louisiana law who contribute their gametes and who enter 11 into an enforceable gestational surrogacy contract, as defined in this Chapter, with 12 a gestational mother pursuant to which they will be the legal parents of the child 13 resulting from that assisted reproduction.

14 PART II. GENETIC SURROGACY

15 §2719. Contract for genetic surrogacy; nullity

16 A contract for genetic surrogacy shall be absolutely null.

17 PART III. GESTATIONAL SURROGACY

18 §2720. Enforceability of gestational surrogacy contract

19 A. In accordance with the requirements of this Part, an agreement to be 20 known as a gestational surrogacy contract is enforceable only if it is in writing and 21 signed by the gestational mother, her spouse if she is married, and both of the 22 intended parents.

23 B. A gestational surrogacy contract is enforceable only if approved by a 24 court in advance of in utero embryo transfer, and is in accordance with all of the 25 requirements of this Part.

26 C. No person shall enter into a gestational surrogacy contract for 27 compensation as defined in R.S. 9:2718 or that is not in compliance with all of the 28 requirements of this Part. Any such contract executed in the state of Louisiana or

1 any other state shall be absolutely null and unenforceable in the state of Louisiana
2 as contrary to public policy.

3 D. No person shall enter into a gestational surrogacy contract that requires 4 the gestational mother to consent to terminate a pregnancy resulting from in utero 5 embryo transfer for any reason, including a prenatal diagnosis of an actual or 6 potential disability, impairment, genetic variation, or any other health condition or 7 a discrimination based on gender, or for the purposes of the reduction of multiple 8 fetuses. Any such provision in a contract executed in the state of Louisiana or any 9 other state shall be absolutely null and unenforceable in the state of Louisiana as 10 contrary to public policy.

11 §2720.1. Parties to a gestational surrogacy contract

12 A gestational mother shall, at the time the gestational surrogacy contract is 13 executed:

14 (1) Be at least twenty-five years of age, and no older than thirty-five years
15 of age.

16 (2) Have given birth to at least one child.

17 §2720.2. Contractual requirements

18 A. In an enforceable gestational surrogacy contract, the gestational mother 19 shall do all of the following:

20 (1) Agree to become pregnant by means of in utero embryo transfer, using 21 the gametes of the intended parents, and to give birth to the resulting child.

22 (2) Agree to reasonable medical evaluation and treatment during the term of 23 the pregnancy, to adhere to reasonable medical instructions about prenatal health, 24 and to execute medical records releases under R.S. 40:1299.96 in favor of the 25 intended parents.

26 (3) Certify that prior to executing the gestational surrogacy contract she has 27 undergone at least two counseling sessions, separated by at least thirty days, with a 28 licensed clinical social worker, licensed psychologist, medical psychologist, licensed 29 psychiatrist, or licensed counselor, to discuss the proposed surrogacy.

1 (4) Certify, along with her spouse if she is married, that she will relinquish
2 all rights and duties as the parents of a child born as a result of in utero embryo 3 transfer.

4 B. In an enforceable gestational surrogacy contract, the intended parents 5 shall be a man and woman who are married to each other in accordance with 6 Louisiana law and shall certify in writing that they do all of the following:

7 (1) Acknowledge that the gestational mother has sole authority with respect 8 to medical decision-making during the term of the pregnancy consistent with the 9 rights of a pregnant woman carrying her own biological child.

10 (2) Agree to accept custody of and to assume full parental rights and 11 responsibilities for the child immediately upon the child's birth, regardless of any 12 impairment of the child.

13 (3) Be recognized as the legal parents of the child.

14 C. The gestational surrogacy contract shall include a preliminary estimate
15 of anticipated expenses and their allocation in accordance with R.S. 9:2720.5.
16 §2720.3. Proceeding to approve surrogacy contract

17 A. Prior to in utero embryo transfer, the intended parents or the gestational 18 mother and her husband, if she is married, may initiate a summary proceeding in the 19 court exercising jurisdiction over the adoption of minors where the intended parents 20 or the gestational mother reside, seeking to have the court approve a gestational 21 surrogacy contract.

22 B. A proceeding to approve a gestational surrogacy contract shall be 23 maintained only if all of the following occur:

24 (1) The gestational mother and each of the intended parents have been 25 domiciled in this state for at least one hundred eighty days.

26 (2) The intended parents, the gestational mother, and her spouse, if she is 27 married, are all parties to the proceeding.

28 (3) A copy of the proposed gestational surrogacy contract is attached to the 29 motion.

1 (4) An independent board certified physician in obstetrics and gynecology
2 or in reproductive endocrinology, who has medically treated the intended mother over 3 a period of time such that the physician is competent to reach medical conclusions
4 about the intended mother's medical condition and submits a signed affidavit
5 certifying that in utero embryo transfer with a gestational mother is medically 6 necessary to assist in reproduction.

7 (5) For purposes of this Section, "medically necessary" means that the 8 intended mother has been diagnosed to be infertile, or to have a physical condition 9 such that a pregnancy would create serious risk of death or substantial and 10 irreversible impairment of a major bodily function beyond the risk customary to 11 pregnancy and child birth.

12 §2720.4. Institution of records check

13 A. Upon the initiation of the summary proceeding, the court shall do all of 14 the following:

15 (1) Order and be entitled to the criminal history record and identification files
16 of the Louisiana Bureau of Criminal Identification and Information on each of the 17 intended parents and the gestational mother and her spouse, if she is married, as a 18 means of performing background checks on those individuals. The bureau shall,
19 upon request and after receipt of fingerprint cards and other identifying information
20 from the court, make available to the court information contained in the bureau's 21 criminal history record and identification files, which pertains to each of the intended 22 parents and the gestational mother and her spouse, if she is married. In addition, in 23 order to determine an applicant's suitability, the fingerprints shall be forwarded by 24 the bureau to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history
25 record check. The bureau shall charge a processing fee as provided in R.S.
26 15:587(B)(1).

27 (2) Order that the Department of Children and Family Services conduct a 28 records check for validated complaints of child abuse or neglect in this or any other

1 state in which either of the intended parents and the gestational mother and her
2 spouse, if she is married, has been domiciled since becoming a major.

3 (3) Order that the Judicial Administrator's Office of the Louisiana Supreme 4 Court conduct a records check for court orders entered into the Louisiana Protective 5 Order Registry involving each of the intended parents and the gestational mother and 6 her spouse, if she is married.

7 B. Each order shall state the full name, date of birth, social security number,
8 and former and current state of domicile since becoming a major of each subject of 9 the check.

10 C. The sheriff or the office of state police, Louisiana Bureau of Criminal 11 Identification and Information, the Department of Children and Family Services, and 12 the Judicial Administrator's Office of the Louisiana Supreme Court shall accord 13 priority to these orders and shall provide a certificate to the court indicating all 14 information discovered, or that no information has been found.

15 §2720.5. Order Preceding Embryo Transfer

16 A. Within sixty days of the initiation of a proceeding to approve a gestational
17 surrogacy contract, the court shall set the matter for hearing, and after the hearing 18 may issue an order, known as the Order Preceding Embryo Transfer, approving the 19 gestational surrogacy contract and declaring that the intended parents shall be 20 recognized as the legal parents of a child born pursuant to the gestational surrogacy
21 contract.

22 B. The court shall issue an Order Preceding Embryo Transfer upon finding 23 that all of the following have occurred:

24 (1) The requirements of R.S. 9:2720-2720.3 have been satisfied and the 25 reports of criminal records, validated complaints of child abuse or neglect, and 26 Louisiana Protective Order Registry checks show that there is no risk of harm to the 27 child or the gestational mother.

1 (2) Provisions have been made for all reasonable healthcare and legal 2 expenses associated with the gestational surrogacy contract until the birth of the 3 child, including responsibility for those expenses if the contract is terminated.

4 (3) The gestational mother will receive no compensation other than:

5 (a) Actual medical expenses, including hospital, testing, nursing, midwifery,
6 pharmaceutical, travel, or other similar expenses, incurred by the gestational mother 7 for prenatal care and those medical and hospital expenses incurred incident to the 8 birth.

9 (b) Actual expenses incurred for mental health counseling services provided
10 to the gestational mother prior to the birth and up to six months after birth.

11 (c) Actual lost wages of the gestational mother, not covered under a 12 disability insurance policy, when bed rest has been prescribed for the gestational
13 mother for some maternal or fetal complication of pregnancy and the gestational
14 mother, who is employed, is unable to work during the prescribed period of bed rest.

15 (d) Actual travel costs related to the pregnancy and delivery, court costs, and 16 attorney fees incurred by the gestational mother.

17 (e) Payment of a judicially sanctioned settlement or judgment rendered in 18 favor of the gestational mother or her heirs as a result of her death, loss of 19 reproductive organs or capability, or any other health complication caused by the in 20 utero embryo transfer, pregnancy or resulting childbirth, miscarriage, or termination 21 of pregnancy.

22 (4) The parties understand the contract and freely give consent.

23 §2720.6. Multiple embryo transfer attempts

24 If there are multiple attempts at in utero embryo transfer, the gestational
25 surrogacy contract and the Order Preceding Embryo Transfer shall continue in full 26 force and effect in accordance with the parties' agreement until terminated under R.S.
27 9:2720.9 or 2720.11, or until a live birth occurs pursuant to the gestational surrogacy
28 contract.

1 §2720.7. Confidentiality

2 All proceedings governed by this Chapter shall be heard by the judge in 3 chambers or in a closed hearing, and no one shall be admitted to the hearings except 4 the parties in interest, their attorneys, and officers of the court. The court, in its 5 discretion, may grant the request of a petitioner to permit others to be present at the 6 hearing. The court records of these proceedings and the identities of the parties to 7 a gestational surrogacy contract shall be sealed and are subject to disclosure, release, 8 or inspection only upon application to the court and in conformity with the 9 applicable requirements of confidentiality applicable to adoptions in the Children's 10 Code.

11 §2720.8. Continuing and exclusive jurisdiction

12 Subject to the jurisdictional requirements of the Uniform Child Custody
13 Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, the court having jurisdiction over the proceeding
14 to approve a gestational surrogacy contract pursuant to this Part shall have exclusive,
15 continuing jurisdiction of all matters arising out of the gestational surrogacy contract.

16 §2720.9. Termination of contract by notice

17 A. Before each in utero embryo transfer, the gestational mother or either of 18 the intended parents may terminate the gestational surrogacy contract by filing a 19 motion with the court giving notice of termination and serving all other parties with 20 the motion. Upon filing of the motion, the court shall issue an order vacating the 21 Order Preceding Embryo Transfer.

22 B. Neither a gestational mother nor her spouse, if she is married, is liable to 23 the intended parents for terminating a gestational surrogacy contract pursuant to this 24 Section.

25 C. Absent timely notice of termination by an intended parent or the 26 gestational mother, no court shall terminate an enforceable gestational surrogacy
27 contract after issuance of a valid Order Preceding Embryo Transfer except for good
28 cause shown after a hearing. No court shall terminate a gestational surrogacy 29 contract after a successful in utero embryo transfer.

1 §2720.10. Remedies

2 After in utero embryo transfer, a failure to perform under the gestational
3 surrogacy contract does not give rise to the right to dissolution. The parties' rights
4 and responsibilities are otherwise governed by the rules of the Titles on Obligations
5 in General and Conventional Obligations or Contracts.

6 §2720.11. Termination of contract and effects of divorce, nullity, death

7 A judgment of divorce or judicial declaration of nullity of a marriage between 8 the intended parents, entered before in utero embryo transfer, terminates the 9 gestational surrogacy contract. Upon the filing of a motion notifying the court of the 10 judgment of divorce or declaration of nullity, the court shall issue an order vacating
11 the Order Preceding Embryo Transfer. If an intended parent dies before in utero 12 embryo transfer, the deceased individual is not a parent of the resulting child unless 13 the child was born within three years of the death of the decedent and the deceased 14 agreed in writing that if the in utero embryo transfer were to occur after death, the 15 deceased individual would be a parent of the child and that the child would have all 16 rights, including the capacity to inherit from the decedent.

17 §2720.12. Effect of subsequent marriage

18 After the issuance of an Order Preceding Embryo Transfer, subsequent 19 marriage of the gestational mother does not affect the validity of a gestational
20 surrogacy contract. The consent of the spouse is not required, and he is not a 21 presumed father of the resulting child, notwithstanding any legal presumption to the 22 contrary.

23 §2720.13. Post-Birth Order

24 A. Upon birth of a child to a gestational mother within three hundred days 25 after in utero embryo transfer, the intended parents or their successors, the 26 gestational mother, or her spouse shall file a motion requesting issuance of a 27 Post-Birth Order. The motion shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the child's 28 original birth certificate and an affidavit executed by the intended parents containing

1 an accounting of fees and charges paid or agreed to be paid by or on behalf of the 2 intended parents in connection with the gestational surrogacy contract.

3 B. If neither the intended parents, their successors, the gestational mother,
4 or her spouse file the motion described in Subsection A of this Section, the 5 Department of Children and Family Services may file a motion notifying the court 6 that a child has been born to the gestational mother within three hundred days after 7 in utero embryo transfer, and the court shall set the motion for hearing.

8 C. The court may order a hearing and, after finding that the parties have 9 complied with this Part, shall issue a Post-Birth Order:

10 (1) Confirming that the intended parents are the legal parents of the child and 11 are financially responsible for the child.

12 (2) If necessary, ordering that the child be surrendered to the intended 13 parents.

14 (3) Directing that a new birth certificate be created and that the intended
15 parents be listed on the birth certificate as the parents of the child pursuant to R.S.
16 40:32 et seq., and that the original birth certificate be sealed and subject to release
17 or inspection only upon application to the court for good cause shown.

18 §2720.14. DNA testing

19 If the child is alleged not to be the child of the intended parents, supported 20 by a sworn affidavit alleging specific facts which either tend to prove or deny 21 filiation, the court shall order genetic testing to determine the parentage of the child.
22 If the court finds after a contradictory hearing that the child is the genetic child of the 23 gestational mother, the court shall issue an order recognizing her as a legal parent of 24 the child. If any party refuses to submit to such tests, the court may resolve the 25 question of filiation against such party or enforce its order if the rights of others and 26 the interests of justice so require.

1 §2720.15. Finality; time limitations

2 A. A party to the gestational surrogacy contract may bring an action to annul
3 a Post-Birth Order. However, except as otherwise provided in this Part, no action
4 to annul a Post-Birth Order may be brought except on the grounds of fraud or duress.

5 B. An action to annul a Post-Birth Order based upon a claim of fraud or 6 duress perpetrated by:

7 (1) Anyone other than an intended parent shall be brought within one year 8 from the date of the signing of the final decree or mailing of the notice of the 9 judgment when required.

10 (2) An intended parent shall be brought within two years from the date of the 11 signing of the final decree or mailing of the notice of the judgment when required.

12 Section 2. R.S. 40:34(B)(1)(a)(viii), (h)(v), (i), and (j) are hereby amended and 13 reenacted to read as follows:

HB No. 187

Abstract: Prohibits genetic surrogacy contracts and certain gestational surrogacy contracts, provides for the enforceability of gestational surrogacy contracts, and provides for data collection of certain information relative to gestational surrogacy contracts.

Present law provides that a contract for surrogate motherhood shall be absolutely null and shall be void and unenforceable as contrary to public policy. Present law provides that "Contract for surrogate motherhood" means any agreement whereby a person not married to the contributor of the sperm agrees for valuable consideration to be inseminated, to carry any resulting fetus to birth, and then to relinquish to the contributor of the sperm the custody and all rights and obligations to the child.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2718) defines the following terms: "compensation", "gamete", "genetic surrogacy", "gestational surrogacy", "gestational mother", "in utero embryo transfer", and "intended parents".

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2719) provides that a contract for genetic surrogacy shall be absolutely null.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720) provides that a gestational surrogacy contract is only enforceable if approved by a court before in utero implantation. Further prohibits a gestational surrogacy contract for compensation and prohibits a gestational surrogacy contract that requires the gestational mother to consent to terminate a pregnancy if prenatal testing reveals certain disabilities or to reduce multiple fetuses.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.1) requires a gestational mother to be at least 25 years of age, but not more than 35 years of age, and to have already given birth to at least one child at the time the gestational surrogacy contract is executed.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.2) requires the gestational mother to do all of the following in a gestational surrogacy contract:

- (1) Agree to become pregnant by in utero implantation, using the gametes of the intended parents, and give birth to the resulting child.
- (2) Agree to reasonable medical testing and instructions regarding prenatal health and to execute a medical records release in favor of the intended parents.

- (3) Certify that she has attended at least two counseling sessions, separated by at least 30 days, with a mental health professional prior to executing a gestational surrogacy contract.
- (4) Certify that she agrees to relinquish all rights of the child born as a result of the in utero implantation. If the surrogate is married, her spouse must also relinquish all rights.

Proposed law further requires the intended parents to do all of the following in a gestational surrogacy contract:

- (1) Acknowledge that the gestational mother has sole authority with respect to medical decision making during the pregnancy.
- (2) Agree to accept custody and full parental rights of the child, regardless of any impairment of the child.
- (3) Be recognized as the legal parents of the child.

Proposed law requires the parties to agree on a preliminary estimate of anticipated expenses.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.3) allows the parties to the gestational surrogacy contract to seek court approval of a gestational surrogacy contract before in utero implantation by initiating a summary proceeding in the court exercising jurisdiction over adoptions where the intended parents or gestational mother reside.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.4) requires the court to order background checks on each of the intended parents, the gestational mother, and her spouse, if married.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.5) requires the court to set a hearing within 60 days of the initiation of a proceeding to approve a gestational surrogacy contract, and requires the court to issue an Order Preceding Embryo Transfer approving the gestational surrogacy contract upon finding all of the following:

- (1) All requirements of proposed law regarding gestational surrogacy contracts have been satisfied and that the background checks show there is no risk of harm to the child or the gestational mother.
- (2) Provisions have been made for all reasonable health care and legal expenses associated with the gestational surrogacy contract.
- (3) The gestational mother will only be compensated for actual medical expenses, mental health counseling expenses, actual lost wages of the gestational mother due to prescribed bed rest, actual travel costs, and any monetary recovery obtained because of death or loss of reproductive organs or capability to gestational mother because of the in utero embryo transfer and pregnancy.
- (4) The parties understand the contract and freely give consent.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.6) provides that the gestational surrogacy contract and the Order Preceding Embryo Transfer shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with the parties' agreement or until a live birth occurs when there are multiple attempts at in utero implantation.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.7) requires all proceedings and court records relative to the gestational surrogacy contract be held and maintained confidentially.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.8) provides for the continuing and exclusive jurisdiction of the court approving a gestational surrogacy contract for matters relative to a gestational surrogacy contract.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.9) allows the intended parents or the gestational mother to terminate a gestational surrogacy contract before in utero implantation by filing notice of termination with the court and serving all parties. Further provides that neither a gestational mother, nor her spouse, is liable to the intended parents for terminating a gestational surrogacy contract. Also prohibits the court from terminating a gestational surrogacy contract after issuing a valid Order Preceding Embryo Transfer, except for good cause, or after a successful in utero implantation.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.10) provides for remedies for the failure to perform under a gestational surrogacy contract.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.11) requires the court to issue an order vacating the Order Preceding Embryo Transfer when a judgment of divorce or judicial declaration of nullity of a marriage between the intended parents is entered before in utero implantation. Further provides that an intended parent who dies before in utero implantation is considered a parent of a resulting child only when the child is born within three years of the death of the intended parent and the deceased agreed in writing that the deceased would be a parent of the child if the in utero implantation occurred after death.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.12) provides that the subsequent marriage of the gestational mother has no effect on the validity of a gestational surrogacy contract.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.13) requires the intended parents or the gestational mother to file a motion requesting issuance of a Post-Birth Order upon birth of a child within 300 days of in utero implantation. Authorizes DCFS to file the motion if the parties fail to do so.

Proposed law requires the court to issue a Post-Birth Order, after finding the parties have complied with the requirements of proposed law, which shall contain the following:

- (1) Confirmation that the intended parents are the legal parents.
- (2) An order that the child be surrendered to the intended parents.
- (3) An order for the creation of a new birth certificate listing the intended parents as the parents of the child and for the original birth certificate to be sealed.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.14) provides for DNA testing when the child is alleged not to be the child of the intended parents.

Proposed law (R.S. 9:2720.15) restricts the basis of annulment of a Post-Birth Order to allegations of fraud and duress. Requires an action to annul be brought within one year from the date of the signing of the final decree or mailing of the notice of judgment when it is alleged that someone other than the intended parents perpetrated the fraud or duress, or two years from the date of signing if an intended parent is alleged to have perpetrated the fraud or duress.

Present law provides for the surname of the child, the name of the father, and the name of the mother when a child is born of a surrogate birth parent. Further limits a surrogate birth parent to one who "is related by blood or affinity to a biological parent".

Proposed law retains present law except that it eliminates the provision limiting a surrogate birth parent to one who "is related by blood or affinity to a biological parent" and makes changes consistent with proposed law.

Present law (R.S. 14:286) provides for the crime of sale of minor children, including selling or surrendering a minor child to another for money or anything of value, or paying for the procurement of an act of voluntary surrender for the adoption of a child.

Proposed law retains present law and adds any act that is not in compliance with the requirements for gestational surrogacy contracts under R.S. 9:2718, et seq., or any act by a person assisting in a genetic surrogacy contract for compensation as defined in R.S. 9:2718, et seq., to the enumerated list of actions constituting the crime of sale of minor children.

Proposed law further prohibits any person from offering money or anything of value to a woman to consent to an abortion, whether or not she is a party to an enforceable or unenforceable agreement for genetic or gestational surrogacy. Further provides for application to those contracts already entered into on the effective date of this Act.

Proposed law (R.S. 40:94, et seq.) establishes a database collection system for information relative to gestational surrogacy contracts, including information pertaining to complications of pregnancy, miscarriages, or terminations. Provides procedures for the collection of data, penalties for failure to comply, and confidentiality of the data collected.

Present law prohibits a "contract for surrogate motherhood" defined as any agreement whereby a person not married to the contributor of the sperm agrees for valuable consideration to be inseminated, to carry any resulting fetus to birth, and then to relinquish to the contributor of the sperm the custody and all rights and obligations to the child.

Proposed law repeals present law.
