HB No. 247

Abstract: Extends the rebate that automobile insurers offer to active military personnel to reservists and members of the La. National Guard.

Present law provides that automobile insurers shall provide a rebate of 25% of the policy premium to all active members of the military. Further provides that insurers who provide this discount shall be entitled to a credit that will be applied to the premium taxes imposed on the insurer.

Proposed law extends the 25% rebate to members of the La. National Guard and reservists; otherwise retains present law.
