2018 Regular Session

Jackson

Abstract: Provides for applicability of restrictions on the practice of telemedicine.

Present law provides that a physician who lawfully practices telemedicine in La. shall not be subject to any regulatory prohibition or restriction on the practice of telemedicine, including prohibitions or restrictions related to prescribing controlled dangerous substances, which are in any manner more restrictive than the prohibitions and restrictions that are otherwise applicable to the entire practice of medicine.

Proposed law stipulates that present law applies in all instances.
